

Brewster Church has annual turkey dinner

By Angie Moore
Brewster Correspondent
Been a busy week in Brewster. Congratulations to the Brewster High Scholar's Bowl Team, which took second place this week at Golden Plains. Kathy Bannister is the sponsor. The Brewster United Methodist Church held its annual turkey dinner

Wednesday at the church. Everyone enjoyed the meal and visiting with friends. The BETA Women's Club and Brewster School put on a wonderful tribute to area veterans on Thursday. Area veterans were recognized as well as those currently serving. Rook Shaw, a Brewster junior and Reserve Officers Training Corps member, lead everyone in the Pledge of Allegiance. Will Allen, a senior, read an essay he wrote in honor of his great-uncle. Junior and senior high band and vocal students, as well as elementary vocal students, all directed by Alice Collett, performed. Mary Schmidt's third and fourth graders presented each veteran with cards they had made. Brewster was a busy place on Saturday as many gathered at the Senior Center for breakfast to support the library and museum. Despite the wind and nasty weather, friends enjoyed homemade soup and visiting at the Lutheran Church for lunch. The Craft Peddler had their Christmas Open House and the school held a Junior High Tournament. Noticed a few hunters out and about too. Make plans to attend the annual fall play at the school this weekend. "The Ransom of Miss Elverna Dower" by Laurie Bryant will be performed at 7 p.m. on Saturday and 3 p.m. on Sunday. The sophomore class will be serving dinner beginning at 5:30 Saturday. For tickets, contact any sophomore or Michele Werth. Tickets are needed for the dinner only, not the play. If you have Brewster news or upcoming events you like to share, please let me know. E-mail angiem@st-tel.net or drop off information off at the Prairie Land Insurance office.

Logan museum showing work of two local artists in December

The Dane G. Hansen Memorial Museum in Logan is featuring a dual private showing of the work of Bobbi Kerth and Staci Hartman in the gallery Friday, Dec. 7, through Sunday, Feb. 3. This exhibit features two local artists of great skill and talent.

Bobbi Kerth lives in WaKeeney. She paints in her home studio in the mediums of oil and watercolor. Her love of nature is an inspiration for her award-winning paintings. Kerth also enjoys creating whimsical and happy Santas, many of which have been "Art Search" winners for the American Diabetes Association Gift of Hope catalog. She has received numerous awards for her paintings in area art shows and fairs. She has exhibited in the Goodland Carnegie Art Center and the WaKeeney and Hays Art Walks. Her paintings can be found in collections throughout the U.S. Staci Hartman has spent the majority of her life in Logan. Her work shows typical scenes of rural life. She also loves to travel and extend her subject venue. Her creative work is done in oil and pastel. Hartman has studied with well-known national artists including Kaye Franklin, Howard Friedland and David Vollbracht and continues to work with these artists annually. A member of Oil Painters of America, she has won honors at the Rohr Art Show in Russell. Hartman also belongs to the Palco Art Club. Museum Hours are 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, 1 to 5 p.m. Sundays and holidays. For information, call (785) 689-4846 or go to www.hansenmuseum.org.
