

George and Charisse Dyer

Arts association plans Colby Christmas show

One of the great tenors in the world, George Dyer, will present his Branson Christmas show at 2 p.m. (Mountain Time) on Sunday, Dec. 9, at the Colby High School Auditorium.

Joined by his wife Charisse and daughter Kendra plus a back-up group of keyboard, piano and drum musicians. Dyer will present a program of familiar Christmas carols and pops tunes including "White Christmas," "O Holy Night," "I'll be Home for Christmas" and "Silent Night."

Dyer soared onto the operatic scene in 1966 as Ralph Rackstraw in "H.M.S. Pinafore" at the New York City Opera and has performed in opera and concert halls across the globe. A musical theater performer, he has enchanted audiences with solo performance that also include many Broadway favorites. With the addition of his wife and daughter, who join him in duets and trios, this performance becomes a beautiful family show.

This show is part of the current concert season of the Western Plains Arts Association. Admission is by season ticket or at the door; adults, $20 and student, kindergarten through 12, $10.

Lynette Bickley and Nadine Banks

Two sisters earn use of Mary Kay cars

Forrest and Carolyn Brazda's two daughters, Lynette Bickley of Colorado Springs and Nadine Banks of Manhattan, earned cars from Mary Kay for their business accomplishments.

Bickley earned the use of a Mary Kay pink Cadillac, the iconic symbol for Mary Kay in a pearlized pink. She chose the 2012 SRX, a luxury midsize SUV. Mary Kay independent sales directors who earn the use of a pink Cadillac can choose from the CTS and SRX models. Car qualifies also have the option of selection cash compensation in lieu of the car. Currently more than 7,300 sales force members have either qualified or re-qualified to earn the use of a career car. Bickley has earned six pink Cadillacs with nine career cars overall.

Banks earned the use of a new Chevy Equinox crossover for the operation of her independent Mary Kay business. This is her fifth career car.

Bickley began her business as an independent beauty consultant in 1992 as a senior at Goodland High School. She became a sales director in 1966 after graduating from Fort Hays State University, Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts. As a sales director she provides education, leadership and motivation to other independent consultant. She is married to Cody Bickley and they have a son, Coltyn, 3.

Banks began as a beauty consultant in 1997 and became a director in 2004. She is married to Jay Banks and they have a daughter, Evie, 2.

College senior has production

Waugh

Kansas Wesleyan University senior Ben Waugh will present his theater project ">3" tonight and at 6:30 p.m. (Mountain Time) on Saturday in Fitzpatrick Auditorium in Sams Hall of Fine Arts in Salina. Waugh graduated from Goodland High School in 2010.

The theme follows the uniquely individual, but entirely universal aspect of "love." The material ranges from classic Shakespearean pieces to contemporary theatre melded and arranged with found works and Waugh's own material.

The cast includes Waugh, Blaine Ruiz, Trey Haines, Hannah Holt, Faith Ramsey, Jennifer McCullick and Vanessa Kresin.

An informal discussion and question session about the process and the themes will directly follow the performance, with a reception following.

KEEP YOUR TAX DOLLARS LOCAL & LOWER YOUR TAX OBLIGATION

Q. Why should I consider purchasing a 60% tax credit from Northwest Tech?

A. Most businesses and individuals pay state income tax every year with little control over how the money is eventually used. By purchasing a 60% tax credit, it gives you the alternative of making sure some of your state tax obligation stays in northwest Kansas, helping the college and the economic good of our community.
