Enterprise consortium hires new facilitator

Kansas Enterprise Facili-tation Consortium met their new facilitator at a board meeting last Thursday in Leoti.

Wade Phillips, 30, of Manhattan, was hired by the board in December to replace Sam Lane, who had been fired in October.

Board President Todd Heitschmidt of Leoti introduced

The Goodland Star-News trict. He said Phillips was hired out ties. The six counties of the Western of a pool of 20 people who submitted resumes in Novem-

ness and passion we need States in 1996. to help the small business

Phillips and said he is on the job and going, and was already taking calls Institute staff.

is moving to Leoti to be in the dis-from people in many of the coun-Sharla Krenzel, economic development director for Wichita County, said Suzette McFaul from the "I believe we have the Sirolli Institute will be coming next best person to fill the po- week to spend three days training sition," Heitschmidt said. Phillips on the facilitation program "He has the background, created by Dr. Ernesto Sirolli, knowledge of small busi- which was introduced in the United

She said McFaul, who is from entrepreneurs in our New Westminster, British Columbia, was an enterprise facilitator for Phillips is originally from Lewis, Kan., near Kinsley.

He operated the Aggie Station Restaurant in Manhattan until fire destroyed the business in May.

Before that, he operated ProFitness in Manhattan for six

"I love rural America," Phillips wrote in his resume. "I wish I could make a living taking over the family farm. I wish I could find plentiful opportunities in rural Kansas.

"The town I grew up in had a gro-Phillips said he was eager to get five years before joining the Sirolli cery store, hardware store, full ser-day. vice gas station, a good cafe, beer joint, newspaper, locally owned Wichita, Kearney, Scott, Greeley bank, Saturday night bingo games, used car dealership and machine/ welding shop. The only thing that exists today is the beer joint about that Main Street, bustling with commerce, without an open sparking spot, but it will take a new type of thinking to bring new people back to these towns."

Phillips said he has been visiting people in the member counties and will be in Sherman County on Fri-

The six counties are Sherman, and Lane.

The enterprise facilitation project was started by the Kansas Department of Commerce and De-"We can romanticize and dream velopment two years ago.

The state gave three groups $200,000 each, and the counties were to raise $100,000 locally for the three-year project.

The state has since expanded the number of enterprise facilitation groups, and Gov. Kathleen Sebelius as announced plans to expand the program again.

Hospital seeks Medicare money

By Sharon Corcoran The Goodland Star-News

The Goodland Regional Medical Center board voted Monday to seek more money from Medicare to compensate for a drop in patients in 2002, and to look for financing for $2 million in long-term debt.

Jim Precht, hospital chief financial officer, recapped discussions from the finance committee meeting concerning the Medicare reimbursement, long-term debt, employee benefits and the December financial report, and presented the committee's recommendations at the board meeting.

Precht saidhe had talked to Roger Johnson, accountant with Johnson. Wendling and Roe, about the Medicare Sole Community Provider issue regarding the hospital's 2002 cost report.

Johnson estimates the hospital should be able to get $230,000 in building, the insurance wouldn't Board members agreed that for the year.

additional reimbursement, Precht reimburse for it. said, and has proposed a letter to begin seeking the money.

The hospital will need to pay Johnson $15,000, the financial officer said.

Precht said, and have to be appealed. He said the hospital's request will probably go to the Provider Reimbursement Review

The process will probably take up to two years to settle, Precht said, and the hospital will incur legal fees along the way.

cant drops in patients," Precht said. "That is the issue."

view, he said, that unless a hospital's drop in patients was due use that money to take care of ben-

Nonetheless, Precht said Johnson and attorney Dick Haye feel the hospital's position is sound, and its appeal should be successful.

The hospital board also approved Most requests are turned down, officials' seeking financing for $2 million of long-term debt by issuing 10-year industrial revenue bonds for private placement.

There will be up bond issuance cost around $7,500, Precht said, but the refinancing would reduce the current cash requirements by $10,000 per month.

Precht also discussed the "In the 2002 year, we had signifi- hospital's efforts to catch up employee benefits and asked whether the hospital should use county tax Medicare has in the past taken the money to catch up the payments.

boiler blowing up a portion of the are other responsibilities as well.

efits should have priority and said Precht should pay other bills with some of the money only if there are creditors that will shut their account catching up with the employee ben-

The hospital is behind on paying premiums to Blue Cross and Blue Shield for the employee health plan, he said, and the employee pension plan is still unfunded.

The hospital had caught up the Benefit Management Inc. health plan claims by year-end, Precht said, but had to make a last-minute deposit of $65,000 and delay claims payment until the stop-loss insurance deposit is received.

The hospital had a net loss of $69,391 in December and a net loss He said the hospital should try to of $764,956 for the year.

That includes $638,904 of depreto a disaster, such as a tornado or a efits as soon as possible, but there ciation. The hospital paid $3,507,398 in salaries and wages

Jacob Erickson (left) had his Eagle Scout badge pinned on him by his mother Kathy on Saturday at his Court of Honor at people at the Goodland Veterans program. of Foreign Wars hall.

Photo by Greg Stover/The Goodland Star-News

Freshman receives Eagle Scout Badge

foot badge a month later and Life rank in July 2002.

To win Eagle rank, a Scout community leaders. must be active at least six months as a Life Scout, serving in a position of responsibility in his troop. He also must earn 21 merit badges, 10 more than required for the Eagle Scout pledge and read Life rank, of which 12 are man-

A Scout must plan, develop and

More than three years of hard Erickson planned and built a rest work and dedication paid off for area in the veterans section of the Jacob Erickson Saturday as he Goodland Cemetery. The project received his Eagle Scout Badge at was dedicated in April and was a ceremony before about 60 the venue for a Memorial Day

A candidate also must demon-Erickson, a freshman at strate the Scout spirit by living Goodland High School, is the son the Scout Oath and Law in his of Phil and Kathy Erickson. He daily life. When all requirements joined Boy Scout Troop 142 in are met, the candidate takes part May 2000, earning his Tender- in a Scoutmaster conference, then must pass an Eagle Scout board of review made up of four Scoutmaster Dennis Saint presented the Eagle badge to Erickson's mother to pin on her son. Ron Harding administered the Eagle charge, telling his responsibilities as an Eagle Scout. Kent Whisler served as master of lead others in a service project; ceremony for the Court of Honor.

Mother questions use of search dog in Max Jones Fieldhouse, including cation funding program and the duction to the various projects and SCHOOL, from Page 1 any necessary replacements. benefits the school receives as a re-• Presented Maggie Witzel with sult.

he is seeking ways to enhance the quality of its instruction.

In other business, the board • Voted to republish the district's budget for 2003-2004 to reflect judging contest. $43,000 obtained as a result of the state audit in October.

a certificate of recognition from the school board for being part of the ceived about $95,000 from the proteam that won a national livestock gram.

• Voted to pay $26,613 to Heart-teachers' projects for the second vited board members and guests to ministration office, 1312 Main Ave. land Seating to repair the bleachers phase of the state's vocational edu-the vocational building for an intro-

He said last year the district re-

• Heard from Dennis Friedrichs 10:29 p.m. • Heard from Richard about the progress of Science Schwasinger on work done on the Olympiad Team Projects and in- Monday, Feb. 12, at the school ad-to meet some of the students.

· Voted to hire Mary Harkins as a full-time bus driver and Beth Rutz as an aide at North Elementary.

The meeting as adjourned at

The next meeting will be at 7 p.m.

Goodland is losing postmaster to Colby

Goodland Postmaster Kenton Krehbiel checked postage with a hand held meter. Krehbiel will be leaving Goodland to become the new postmaster in Colby.

Annual

Groundhog Dinner

Sat., Jan. 31

11 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Children 12 and under

First Christian Church

711 Arcade

$2.50

Proceeds go to Youth

Fellowship Group

Adults $5

ITONIGHT AT THE MOVIES Goodland Star-News SUBSCRIBER Jennifer Wood

You receive two free passes to see

Cheaper By the Dozen PG

Sherman Present Ticket at Box Office

Kenton Krehbiel, postmaster here since for 61/2 years, takes over Colby in 1973 and bought and ran as postmaster of the regional hub in Murphy's Cafe for about a year. Colby on Feb. 7. Except for his time They sold the cafe and then he went here, he's spent his entire career at the Colby office.

October 1975 to June of 1997," he Krehbiel said he's happy to be going back to his home town, but he'll miss the people in Goodland.

"It always was my dream and goal," he said. "I've fulfilled that right now."

Colby is the mail processing center for the 677 area. All mail from this area goes to Colby, the sectional sent back out. Krehbiel said the of-

Goodland is losing its postmas- fice covers the nine counties in northwest Kansas.

He and his wife Sheila moved to to work at Boogaarts grocery.

In April 1975, he passed the "I started at the Colby office in Postal Service test and was put on the roster until a position came open. He spent 28 years in the postal service.

His wife is a customer service representative at Sunflower Bank and they have two daughters and one grandson. Krehbiel is chairman of the Colby Community College board and a member of Colby Kiwanis Club.

He said there will be an installacenter, where it's processed and tion ceremony later, but he takes over the office next week.

corrections

The Goodland Star-News will correct any mistake or misunderstanding in a news story. Please call our office at (785) 899-2338 to report errors. We believe that news should be fair and factual. We want to keep an accurate record and appreciate you calling to our attention any failure to live up to this standard.

Internet tonight! 899-2338

Candy Bouquets and Flowers Ogallala Aquifer Symposium Delivered Monday, February 23, 2004 Wray High School Auditorium - Wray, CO February 13th Call 899-7609 Water Conservation – Saving Water Today for Tomorrow Monday - Friday ↓# Water Supply Update ↓# Republican River Litigation

NWKTC - Business Technology Scholarship Fund Raiser

8-2:30

Valentine

Claremont Inn

Stratton, Colorado

Wine Cellar Dining Room Movie Theatre - Spa - Sauna Whirlpool Tubs in Room Dinner, Bed & Breakfast Packages Starting at $219 per couple

1-888-291-8910

www.claremontinn.com

Phone 970-345-2287 or Fax 970-345-2288 E-mail – washingt@coop.ext.colostate.edu

Water Savings - Ag Producer Panel

Event Sponsors: Arickaree Ground Water Mgmt. District, Bank of Colorado of Yuma, Colorado Division of Water Resources, Colorado Natural Resource Conservation, E-Z Irrigation, First National Bank of Kirk, First

8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Register with Golden Plains Cooperative Extension by February 2nd at $15/person or $25/two

(Late fee of $10 following this date)

Pioneer National Bank of Holyoke and Wray, Haxtun Conservation District, Interstate Irrigation Inc., Premier Farm Credit, Tri-State Generation & Transmission

Association, Inc., Wray State Bank,

and Y-W Electric Association, Inc.

Yuma County Conservation District,

↓# Water Legislation Update ↓# Water Conservation Programs