

Weather, vacation plans and rules change quickly

Things sure can change quickly, and sometimes it takes just a little time to do it. The thermometer said 30 degrees this morning, but I think there was some warmth that was coming up from the ground because a lot of living things don't look so living right now. Maybe everything will snap out of it later, though.

Other changes come about quickly too. Roger and I have been making plans for a Montana trip for more than a year, but I think we'll have more time to make plans. We've postponed, for now, for several reasons but do hope to make the trip sometime later this year.

We did some serious considering, and there was really only one thing we could do. I don't know why it takes so long to decide the obvious.

Roger told me something this morning that maybe some of you haven't ever thought about. We have a routine of buying things in pairs because we keep them in two different areas.

He went to Wal-Mart to replace the acetone that he used for cleaning tools, and I am sure that all of you have many uses for it yourselves. Anyway, he picked up two cans and went through the checkout stand.

"Sorry. You can only buy these one at a time," he was told.

To make matters more complicated, he was also buying some antihistamine. Now I know we are having to adjust to new lifestyles, still scratching his head when he told me about this. We figured out it is because of all the amphetamine stuff that is used, I guess, but things like that can sure make you feel silly. I just want any of you who have had experiences like that to know you are not alone.

Onto more serious news, we were very sorry to hear that Arial McDaniel Andrist, a former Brewster resident, died in St. Francis last week. She was the daughter of the late Hank and Eva McDaniel and the sister of Kenneth Dean McDaniel. Our sympathy is extended to her family on this loss.

Jim Tubbs of Levant also died this week, and we send out condolences to his wife Hedy and other family members.

LaVelle Michael has been admitted to Citizens Medical Center in Colby for treatment and tests.

We had a nice surprise when we went to the hospital on Sunday after church. Our Bennington kids, Brian and Michele and Sam and Hannah, were visiting him. We were able to go for a quick bite before they headed back home.

They decided on the spur of the moment that maybe a visit was in order, and I had told them that we would be going over after church.

LaVelle is having many tests and such done, and it may be a while before he is ready to come home, so I think he appreciates the visits.

In visiting her son Ed, I found out that Jean Hutton is progressing nicely at Lantern Park Manor, and that was good to hear.

Lyman Bear said his mother, Lorraine Bear, is also doing very well at that facility. Clarice Berry Blakely enjoyed a family time for her birthday on the 7th of May but looks forward to the reunion coming up next month.

A reminder—Dot Mayer's 100th birthday is May 25, and cards can be sent to her at 2720 Sunnyside Dr.,

Montrose, Colo. 81401.

Barbara Springsteen is in the last stages of moving to Garden City later this month, and we wish her the best on her move, even though we will miss her. I hope she remembers the road between here and there and visits often.

The City-Wide Garage Sale is still being organized, so keep looking in those nooks and crannies. June 5 from 8:30 a.m. until ??? is the time, so be sure to come to Brewster.

I talked to Betty Wolfe about Corky's 75th birthday, and she said he had a fine day. He wants to thank everyone for the cards, e-mails, phone calls and everything else that made his day such a special time for him.

Graduation is over, and it seems hard to believe that school is done for another year. The rest of the school year will probably be pretty much a "play day," but it seems it's a hard job to get ready to do summer things.

The young people are all more ready to spend a few months doing what they want to do, and the folks are all ready to spend a few months doing what they want to do, and the folks are all ready to have that extra help around the yard and house, right?

On June 6, Zelma and Leonard Kinkade will be observing their 50th anniversary. Be sure to drop them a line at Box 275, Brewster, Kan. 67732.

In Ellinwood, another former local couple, Thomas (Shorty) and Maytha (Selby) Starns will also be celebrating 50 years of marriage on June 12. Their address is 405 S. Main, Ellinwood, Kan. 67526.

In July there will be another couple observing their Golden Day, and that is Mr. and Mrs. LaVelle Palmgren. So there are a lot of matrimonial credits being added up to folks from Brewster.

On Thursday and Friday, May 20 and 21, I will try to have a commodity distribution time, so if you are eligible, be sure to check with us at the senior center. There will be tuna, pears, peanut butter, cereal, among other items.

I think that's about it for now, so take care, and we'll see you next time.
