Four Goodland High School underclassmen won medals at the track meet for freshmen and sophomores here Monday.

Nine teams participated with Scott Community High winning the boys competition and Burlington

"This was a very competitive '9-10' meet," said Coach Don Smith. "It is not often you see athletes of that quality at a '9-10' meet. It even had a returning state champion."

Freshman Michelle Smith won the girls' discus with a throw of 101 feet, 7.5 inches and was second in the shot put with a heave of 31 feet, 1.5 inches.

Freshman Kade Sheldon was second in the boys' pole vault, clearing 9 feet, 6 inches, while sophomore teammate Grant Wilkens cleared 9 feet for third.

Freshman Brittaney Medrano placed second in the girls' 400meter dash in 1 minute, 7.86 sec- meet.

Other top-six performances for Goodland were freshman Zach Lohr, fifth in the boys' high jump, and freshman Fernando Martinez, fifth in the boys' 400-meter dash.

Goodland's girls finished sixth and the boys ninth. "This was our first meet," said Coach Smith, "while for the other its was their second, third, and for one team their fourth. Smith said both the boys and girls teams are young and meet experience is their top priority.

The Goodland Star-News The Cowboys split a home doubleheader Tuesday against the Tigers of Ulysses, dropping the first game 4-2 and winning the nightcap 9-8 in nine innings. In the first game, Ulysses led 2-0 after the first inning and 4-0 at the end of five. Goodland got on the scoreboard in the bottom of the sixth on a sacrifice fly by senior Wyatt Dautel which scored sophomore Tanner Smith. Senior Derek Fenner scored on a fielder's choice in the bottom of the seventh for the Cowboys' second run.

The fans saw a lot more offense in the second game, with both scoring three runs in the first inning. The Tigers took advantage of a pair of Goodland errors to score two more in the top of the second, then added another in the top of the third for a top of the fifth and it stayed that way until the seventh inning. The Tigers picked another run in the top of the inning, but the Cowboys responded top of the first in the opener, defense with five runs, tying the game at 8 to force extra innings.

Neither team scored in the eighth and it was "three up, three down" for Ulysses in the ninth.

ninth by hitting the ball to the second baseman, who had trouble fielding it. He was able to steal second and third, but was thrown out at home on a fielder's choice.

With two outs and runner on first, Smith got a hit up the middle, advancing the runner to second. Next freshman Brandon Rome hit the ball to right center, driving in junior Andrew Pettibone for the win-

Pettibone pitched five innings of the first game for the loss.

After Ulysses scored twice in the ruled as Goodland was held scoreless in the bottom of the first, and both teams went "three-and-out" in the second and third.

The Tigers got some hits in the Fenner led off the bottom of the top of the fourth, scoring a run, and continued to keep Goodland off the scoreboard in the bottom of the inning. It was the same in the fifth, with Ulysses scoring one run while being stingy on defense. Smith led off with a hit to left in

Senior Wyatt Dautel hit a fly to Senior Brandon Zelfer pitched all center field, and although it was batters later, Ulysses got the third out on a fielder's choice.

After the Tigers got their first two batters on in the top of the seventh, they got their first out on a fly ball to left, after which the Cowboys executed their second double play of the game to retire the side.

Fenner led off in the bottom of the inning with a "chopper" to the shortstop, but a throwing error allowed him to get to second. He advanced to third when senior Brandon Hatfield grounded out to the second baseman, then scored when senior Brett Lalicker did the same, making it 4-2. The next Goodland batter grounded out to the pitcher, ending the game.

In the nightcap, the Tigers again took an early lead, scoring three run in the top of the first. Wyatt Dautel got things going for the Cowboys in nine innings of the nightcap for his caught for the second out, Smith the bottom of the inning with a field, which got past the Tiger defender, allowing both Dautel and Hillmer to score with Zelfer getting to third. Fenner then grounded out to first, driving in Zelfer to tie the game at 3.

Aggressive base running by Ulysses in the second led to some defensive errors by the Cowboys two of which allowed runners to score giving the Tigers a 5-3 lead. Goodland was held scoreless in the bottom of the inning.

Ulysses scored a run in the top of the third to make it 6-3, and another in the top of the fifth for 7-3.

The Tigers got one more in the top of the seventh for a five-run lead, but the Cowboys rallied. Rome led off with a walk, scoring on a fielder's choice two batters later.
