Youth choir to perform tonight at high school

Master Design, the youth choir from the Kingfisher, Okla., First Baptist Church, will perform at 7 p.m. tonight at the Goodland High School auditorium.

The choir will present “Amazing God,” a “praise and worship dramatic musical.”

Director Harold Drake said this is the 18th year for the choir’s Concert/Mission Tour. This year’s tour will take the choir to Colorado Springs, where the students will lead a Vacation Bible School, do yard work and perform six concerts.

Last year, the choir traveled to the Washington area, working in conjunction with Good Shepherd Alliance homeless shelters in Loudoun County, Va., and doing concerts.

This 28-member choir includes seventh through 12th graders. They have ministered at prisons, block parties, schools, churches, nursing homes and retirement centers.

They have worked with organizations that do Back Yard Bible Clubs, Vacation Bible Schools, sports clinics, painting, cleaning, food and clothes distribution and light construction.

The choir has traveled to Texas, Florida, New Mexico, Arizona, Illinois, Louisiana, Missouri, Colorado and Indiana.

The Family of Bud & Janice Wilkinson would like to thank Dane, Francis, Linda and Joni Guyer for everything they have done for our parents and us the past 3 years.

All your help and thoughtfulness will always be remembered.
