Spaghetti dinner planned Saturday

Tickets are still available for the Goodland Arts Council’s “A Magical Evening” featuring the magic and illusion of Eric Vaughn.

The show starts at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at the Goodland United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall. The evening will include a homemade spaghetti dinner with proceeds benefiting the council.

Tickets are on sale at the Carnegie Arts Center or from any board member through 4 p.m. Saturday. No tickets will be sold at the door.

Vaughn’s motto is “promoting the art of theatrical magic through quality family entertainment,” organizers say, and his performance puts as much emphasis on the entertainment value of the production as it does on the magic and illusions. His cabaret-style show will leave the audience entertained, not just fooled.
