Ola Wauneta Cable

May 9, 1917 - March 2, 2004

Ola Wauneta Cable, 86, died March 2, 2004, at Bryan LG Hospital East in Lincoln.

Mrs. Cable was born on May 9, 1917, in Maywood, Neb., to Frank and Estella (Sawyer) Blake.

On Nov. 13, 1945, she married Leo Joseph Cable. They made their home on a farm in the Indianola and Bartley area. In 1952, they moved to a farm near Arapahoe, Neb., and farmed until their retirement in 1967. At that time they moved to Norton and she worked at the Norton State Hospital as a licensed Mental Health Technician for 15 years. They moved to McCook where Mrs. Cable was residing at the time of her death.

She was a member of the St. Patrick's Catholic Church in McCook, Prairie Pal Club, Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary and Ladies DAV. She volunteered at the St. Patrick's Bargain Bazaar.

Preceding her in death were her parents; her husband; brothers, Cyrus "Orval", Harvie, Orla, Oliver "Bud" and Richard "Otto" Blake; and sisters, Ona "Evalena" Fisher, Clarissa Fritsche and Tracy Mullen.

Survivors include a son, Daryl and Fay Cable, McCook; five grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

Mass of Christian Burial was March 5, 2004, with Father Gar Brethour officiating. Burial was at Fort McPherson National Cemetery in Maxwell, Neb., with Father Ferdinand Boehme officiating.

Memorials may be given in her name in care of Carpenter Breland Funeral Home, 305 West C St., McCook, Neb., 39001.

Robert E. Brown

Oct. 4, 1927 - March 8, 2004

Robert E. Brown, 76, Norton, died March 8, in Norton as the result of a traffic accident.

Mr. Brown was born Oct. 4, 1927, in Oak City, N.C. He was raised in the Methodist Orphanage/Methodist Home for Children in Raleigh, N.C., until he was 18. Upon graduation from high school, he enlisted in the U.S. Army, serving in Japan until he was honorably discharged in May 1947. Upon release from the Army, he worked in Emporia and attended Emporia State University.

In 1952, he accepted the position of night school director at Clark's Business School in Topeka, where he worked for 12 years. On July 7, 1957, he and Wilda June Driscoll were married.

In 1967, he became a court reporter and spent the next 23 years working as district court reporter in Osborne, Barton and Norton counties.

He retired on July 30, 1990.

From 1983 to 1986 he had held various offices in the Kansas Shorthand Reporters Association.

Mr. Brown was a member of the American Legion and past member of the Kiwanis Club of Topeka.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Benjamin Brown, and an infant brother.

Survivors include his wife, Wilda, of the home; two sons, Robert and Bernadette Brown, Houston, and Mark and Lori Brown, Tulsa; a brother, Wilbur Lawrenceville, Va.; two sisters, Mattie of Greenville, N.C., and Betty Lou of Charlottesville, Va.; and seven grandchildren.

There was no visitation. The family selected cremation.

A memorial service was held Thursday at Enfield Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Methodist Orphanage/Methodist Home for Children in care of Enfield Funeral Home, 215 W. Main St., Norton, Kan., 67654.

Mary E. Wilson

Sept. 16, 1951 - March 10, 2004

Mary E. Wilson, 52, of Minneapolis, died March 10, 2004, at the Ottawa County Health Center.

She was born Sept. 16, 1951, in Clay Center, the daughter of Calvin and Bonnie (Frigon) Bigler.

She was a laundry worker at Ottawa County Health Center and a member of Immaculate Conception Church.

Preceding her in death was her brother, Calvin Bigler, Jr. She is survived by her husband, Allen, of the home; two sons, Todd and Shelly Wilson, Minneapolis, and Ryan Wilson, of the home; her parents, Calvin and Bonnie Bigler, Clay Center; a sister, Sandra Sanborn, Lenora; and a grandson.

There will be a visitation from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. today at Shields Funeral Home, Minneapolis. Funeral services will be at 10 a.m., Saturday at the church, Minneapolis, with burial in Highland Cemetery.

Memorials are suggested to either Love, Inc., or Ottawa County Health Center. They may be sent in care of Shield Funeral Home, 405 Argyle, Minneapolis, Kan., 67467.

CORRECTION

It was reported in Tuesday's Norton Telegram that Girl Scouting celebrated its 91st anniversary. The correct number should have been 92 years. The Girl Scouts were founded in 1912 by Juliette Gordon Low. This was an editing error.

The Norton Telegram will correct or clarify anything that is wrong in a news story. Call our office at 877-3361 to report errors. We believe news stories should be fair and factual, and want you to tell us about any failure to live up to this standard.

It's Cozy, Comfortable and Convenient!

805 N. JONES — This home on Jones Street is just the right look to be cozy, just the right size to be comfortable and just the right location to be convenient! An entry opens into an area that includes the living room, dining room and kitchen. Two bedrooms with closets and a bathroom complete the ground floor. The extra amount of storage in the kitchen draws attention as the stairs lead to the basement. A family room at the foot of the stairs is a plus size. Two bedrooms and a combination bathroom and laundry room complete the basement area. A whole house fan, Bryant Forced Air Heating and Cooling Unit adds to the comfort of the home. The side entry opens to a cement drive with an unattached double car garage and a storage barn. It's close to school, a park and shopping! How's that for cozy, comfortable and convenient?
