

WILSONVILLE

By VELMA HOLTZE
 Sunday was a beautiful day, weather wise: but made even more beautiful by listening to Keith Theobald's sermon, "Becoming More Christ-like" which was a definite challenge to every listener.

Velma Holtze attended the Christian Church Women's Retreat at Lexington on Saturday. One of the highlights was the singing time led by Beth Fisher of Beaver City.

Dick McLaughlin had knee surgery in Holdrege on Tuesday. His wife, Joan, has visited him each day. Other visitors from Wilsonville have been Joe and Alice Kasson, Arlee and Sue Bethel and Velma Holtze. Complications have made his stay a little longer than expected.

A number of people attended the pancake supper in Lebanon Saturday evening.

Allen and Connie Wilson drove to her father, Perry Morse's home at McPherson on Saturday. They took a scenic route enabling them to see some different sights which included the largest ball of twine at Cawker City and Rock City at Minneapolis. They went especially to attend the wedding of Chaunzey Rierson and Lace Pavlovich. The Rierson family has been long time friends of Connie and her family.

Delbert and Laurie Laws had out-of-town visitors this past weekend. Mrs. Laws' sister, Gina Kuwamura, from Denver, Colo., and Sondra Williamson of Satanta. Gina and Sondra came up from Satanta on Friday afternoon and left Sunday afternoon. The ladies surprised Delbert and Laurie by bringing lots of wonderful food they had prepared. The ladies said they wanted to treat Laurie to a relaxing weekend now that she is working full-time and deserved a treat. On Saturday Laurie, Gina and Sondra went to Cambridge and enjoyed coffee and cookies at the coffee shop and then went shopping at Hidden Treasures where Gina found the perfect early birthday gift for Laurie. Saturday evening the Laws' daughter Shelly Anderson with her husband Rick and son Austin were also visitors to the Laws home. On Sunday Sondra fixed homemade sausage gravy and biscuits for everyone.
