Lola May (Woods) Smith

Sept. 29, 1904 - April 23, 2004

Lola May (Woods) Smith, 99, great-grandmother of Norton Telegram reporter, Veronica Monier, died April 23 at Enterprise Estates Nursing Center, Enterprise.

Mrs. Smith was born Sept. 29, 1904, in Tescott to Chester and Luella May (Horton) Woods. She lived in Iowa for a short time. However, after the death of her twin brother, Lowell, and younger brother, Carroll, the family returned to Tescott.

She graduated from Tescott High School in 1924, and made her home in the Tescott area until her marriage to Earl O. Smith on May 5, 1926. They farmed the Smith family land in Pleasant Valley Township near Culver, until their retirement in 1960.

Following retirement, they moved to Salina where she continued to be active in the Ladies Aid Society and the Leisure Years. She crocheted throughout her life and donated many of her afghans. In March, she sent one to a family in Mexico.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Earl

Smith in 1970; two brothers; her sister, Edna Ribble; a son-in-law, Harold L. Schmidt; and a grandson.

Survivors include three daughters, Ella Mae Schmidt of Sterling; Lois and Mike Smith-Rohly, Abilene; and Ann Williams, Tucson, Ariz.; a brother, Kenneth Woods, Excelsior Springs, Mo.; five grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; and four great-great-grandchildren.

A rosary was said for Mrs. Smith on Saturday at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church, Norton.

Memorial services were held Wednesday at the Roselawn Memorial Chapel in Salina with the Rev. Charles Norman officiating. Mrs. Smith was buried next to her husband in Roselawn Memorial Cemetery.

Card of Thanks

We would like to thank everyone who has expressed their condolences and have had masses and rosaries said for "mom". It is very appreciated and will not be forgotten.

Sincerely,
Janis and Veronica Monier

Alfred 'Fred' Leroy Waufle

Dec. 10, 1965 - April 23, 2004

Alfred "Fred" Leroy Waufle, 38, died on April 23 after a long battle with cancer.

Mr. Waufle was born Dec. 10, 1965, in Alma to Harold and Deanna Waufle. He was raised in Norton and graduated from Norton Community High School in the class of 1984.

Mr. Waufle was a hard worker who loved to work at anything with his hands. He could do plumbing, welding, farming and truck driving; his favorite being truck driving. He loved to drive a truck and being on the road because it allowed him to see lots of country. One of his favorite destinations was Blaine, Wash.

In 1994, Mr. Waufle moved to St. Francis where he was employed by Callicrate Feed Yard. He worked for them for several years.

In 1998, he met Patty Wieck. They were married a year later on April 2, 1999. He not only found a wife, but also gained a daughter, Vanessa, as part of his new family.

Hunting, fishing and camping were outdoor activities that Mr.

Waufle enjoyed. He especially liked bow hunting and got an elk on a hunting trip to Cody, Wyo., with his father.

He was preceded in death by his parents and grandparents, Alfred and Ernestine Kinney.

Survivors include his wife, Patty Waufle; step-daughter, Vanessa Wieck; a sister, Deb and Dan Bussing of Hays; and a brother, Gary and Malanie Schultz.

Funeral services were held April 27 at the United Methodist Church in St. Francis with the Rev. Richard Garcia of St. Francis Community Church officiating. Casket bearers were Jim Albers, Mark Jenik, Charlie Nipps, Roger Neitzel, Jim Wolters and David Rogers. Burial was at Lawn Ridge Cemetery, rural St. Francis.

Funeral arrangements were under the direction of the Knodel Funeral Home of St. Francis.

CORRECTION

The caption under a photo in the April 27 edition of The Norton Telegram winning the high jump at Phillipsburg incorrectly said that he set the Norton Community High School record of 6-feet, 4-inches earlier this season. He jumped 6-feet, 4-inches at Phillipsburg but his record is 6-feet, 5-inches.

The mistake was a typing error. ☆☆☆☆☆
