Truck hits deer, no one hurt

A deer hit a 1991 Ford pickup, which was traveling east on U.S. 36 on April 14.

Frank Urban, 59, Oberlin, the driver, was unable to avoid the animal which jumped from the south ditch. Mr. Urban was not injured, and the pickup received over $500 in damages.

There are endless possibilities with the house on one level, plenty of space and an invitation to gracious living. The house is situated on three and one-half lots. The centrally located home features an underground sprinkler system for the front yard, eye catching landscape and an attached double car garage.

A spacious living and formal dining area gives a welcome upon entry. Two large bedrooms include more than the usual closet space. One bathroom and a large laundry, back entry room add appeal. The U-shaped kitchen opens to an eating nook with built in hutch. A Lennox unit performs the heating and cooling chores. Long windows, large picture windows and corner windows dot the house plan creating a special style.

Are you one where "there is no place like home," describes you? Then you need to see this home. Contact Duane R. McEwen, salesman for R.J. Metcalf, for your appointment at 785-877-3032.
