RHONDA REUSINK JOINS FARM BUREAU

Farm Bureau Financial Services is pleased to introduce Rhonda Reusink, a new career agent in Norton. The company is excited to have Reusink working to help ensure that clients receive the finest service and products available. As a Farm Bureau agent, she has received extensive training in the insurance and investment products available to clients to plan for their financial future.

Rhonda is a life-long resident of Norton County and a graduate from Norton Community High School and Fort Hays State University. She has prior career experience in the field of Education and Chemical Dependency Counseling. Rhonda and her husband, Doug, have three grown daughters and enjoy the new role of grandparents. Rhonda joined the staff of First Security Bank and Trust in January of this year and will be available to meet all your insurance and financial needs through the First Security Insurance Agency and Farm Bureau Financial Services.

Farm Bureau Financial Services is a multi-state insurance and investment organization based in West Des Moines, Iowa. Through an exclusive agency force, the companies that make up the organization underwrite, market and distribute a broad range of life insurance, annuities, mutual funds, and property-casualty insurance products and services to individuals and small businesses within a marketing territory that includes 15 Midwestern and Western states and nearly 800,000 Farm Bureau member families. For more information about products and services, call your local Farm Bureau office or log on to fbfs.com.
