

Participants interested in the Norton County Fair horse events will want to take notice of the date for these events.

This year's Fun Day Show will take place on Saturday, July 24, with entry check-in at 8 a.m., and the show beginning at 9 a.m.

This will be held at the Equine Facility Arena in Elmwood Park in Norton.

Pre-entries are requested in the Extension office by 5 p.m., Thursday, July 22. Entrants need only fill out one section of a three-section card.

The show is open to youth and adults of Norton and other counties. The events are showmanship, western horsemanship, trail, reining, poles, barrels and pair sack race.

Superintendents are Cindy and Bruce

Wegener and Cindy Lowry.

The 4-H and FFA Youth Horse Show will begin at 9 a.m. on Monday, July 26, with entry and check-in at 8 a.m.

The show will begin with the halter, showmanship and pleasure classes.

Entry cards are due into the Extension office by Thursday, July 22. Only two sections per entry are needed. The 4-H and FFA horses will be stalled through Thursday of the fair at the new equine Center.

The "Ranch Rodeo" is sponsored by the Norton County Horse Council and will be held at 8 p.m. on Thursday, July 29. The jackpot team roping will be held at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, July 28.

A young equestrian wheels her horse around the barrels as she races the clock during last year's Fun Day Horse Show.
