

Volunteers grilled pork burgers for the 4-H Council Pork Burger Special last year. This year's pork burger special and watermelon feed will be on Wednesday, July 28 at 5:30 p.m.

At last year's fair, kids had the chance to try their skills at sheep riding. Some of the smaller kids needed a little bit of a helping hand to stay on the sheep. Kids will have another chance to try their hand at sheep riding this year during McClain's Mutton Bustin' at the equine facility.

Last year's new rides at the Home Owned Carnival were pretty popular. The mini roller coaster coaxed both screams and laughs out of its riders.

Kids wait and watch while the judge checks out their rabbits to see whose will be top notch.
