Exotic animals to be seen, petted at livestock barn

A display of exotic pets will be held in conjunction with the 4-H and FFA Petting Zoo this year from 3:30-4:30 p.m. on Wednesday, July 28.

This will be at the livestock barn in Elmwood Park. An exotic pet is classified as one that would not be shown in another livestock, poultry or pet class at the fair.

The Norton Fair Association would welcome anyone to join the petting zoo to exhibit their exotic pet.

Dr. Steve Graf will be on hand to visit with the public about the exotic animals and the petting zoo participants. Anyone that has an exotic pet is encouraged to contact the Norton County Extension Office at (785) 877-5755 by Thursday to advise them of your entries.

Keith VanSike, Norton County Extension director said, "This has been a popular event combined with the small petting zoo, especially for the younger children."

Other events for Wednesday are the porkburger and watermelon feed at 5:30 p.m., Jackpot Roping at 7 p.m., and the carnival from 6:30-11:30 p.m.

A full description of fair departments and schedules is available at the K-State Research and Extension Office on the ground floor of the Courthouse.
