

Johnnye Ruder showed her stuff in the formal wear division of last year's 4-H Fashion Revue.

4-H'ers will dress their best for revue

The theme for this year's public 4-H fashion revue is "American Pride". The revue will be held at 7 p.m., Saturday, July 24, at the 4-H Building.

Most members enrolled in the clothing project have completed their project work. Judging of clothing construction will begin at 2 p.m., Tuesday followed by junior girls' and junior and senior boys' buymanship at 5:30 p.m. Senior girls' buymanship will begin at 6:30 p.m. All judging will be held at the Norton 4-H Building.

In the construction phase, 4-H'ers will exhibit garments and articles they have made and also model outfits and accessories they have made. The 4-H clothing project also includes two buymanship phases. These 4-H'ers select outfits from the ready-to-wear for their wardrobes.

The garments and articles that the 4-H'ers have made will be on display at the 4-H Building during the fair.

Judges this year are Virginia Slimmer of Plainville and Susan Cartrell of Stockton.
