

Graduates win $39,000 in scholarships

Twenty-seven 2005 graduates and ten past graduates of Norton Community High School were awarded scholarships totaling approximately $39,000. "That is more than a $5,000 increase above last year's scholarships," said Jennifer Hauser, the high school counselor.

"We really appreciate the generosity of the Norton community and local organizations. It is important to invest in our youth," said Mrs. Hauser.

Scholarships were made possible by individual donors, the school, and by estates left to the school district.
