

Logan boys defeat Huskies on Friday

The Logan Trojan basketball boys went home Friday night with a 69-54 triumph over the Northern Valley Huskies, thanks in large part to a sizzling hot opening period in which they scored 23 points.

But, let it be known that the Huskies put 15 points through the hoop in that initial frame, a number that could be called "pretty hot." And on any night but this one, 15 opening game points could have propelled them into the win column.

But it wasn't to be. In the second quarter it was as even as it could be — 14-14. And in the third, Logan found the range for 12 points while the Huskies were in double digits with 10.

The final frame of the night found the Trojans hitting for 20 points vs. the Huskies' 15.

Despite the loss, Northern Valley's Joey Copper was the game's No. 2 scorer with 23. Teammate Avery Thalheim chipped in with double figures also, ending the night with 15. Tim McElroy hit for 24 for Logan to lead all scorers.

Lady Huskies sneak past Logan by one on Friday

The Northern Valley Lady Huskies slipped by the Logan Lady Trojans 41-40 Friday night in a basketball game that the Huskies truly needed every point they could muster — from Joni Hilburn's 2 to Jena Jessup's 19.

The visiting Trojans took a 2-point 12-10 lead after the first buzzer, but the Huskies came back with 9 points in the second period vs. 4 by the visitors to storm into the lockerroom at the break with a 19-16 lead.

The Huskies managed to stay ahead in the third frame, connecting on 13 points while Logan wrinkled the nets for 10. It stood 32-26 at that point.

Logan popped in 14 points in the final quarter, while holding Northern Valley to 9, but it wasn't enough to press the "W" button.
