

NORTON MANOR

By DORIS MIZELL

Clara Shewey celebrated her 80th birthday and all seven of her children were able to be here. It was the first time they had all been together since 1980. There were also 13 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren there. As well as having all three meals in the community room. They had an open house for her. She really appreciated all that they did.

On March 16, Anetta Knapp's son Rex spent the evening with her. He was attending to taxes and business and then back on the road. On March 19 Joshua Otter stopped for awhile. He found a job in Hays and is living there for a while. He had heard from his brother Brandon who has been in the field in Germany. He was doing fine.

The visitors of Dorothy and Joe Foland was their son of Olathe on the weekend of March 29. Noel's daughter, Renee, Chuck and the two kids and Renee's mom stayed at the Rose of Sharon Bed and Breakfast. Everett, Renee's brother, stayed at Joe and Dorothy's. The Folands hadn't seen them for four years. They had never seen Kain, Renee's little boy. It was a joyous time of visiting by all. They plan to come more often. The kids were good and the weather was nice.

Marie Delimont was a guest of Stella Snyder for lunch Wednesday and they spent a pleasant time together in the afternoon.

Shirley Gallentine of Rapid City, S.D., and Frank Brooks from Greeley, Colo., were here April 1 to celebrate their mother's, Maxine Brooks, birthday. They took her to the Legion for supper Saturday night.

Marie Delimont was a guest of the Walter Hoover family for a fried chicken dinner after church Sunday. In the afternoon they played a new game called Methodist Madness.

Doris Mizell joined the L.D. Club for lunch at Attitudes on Thursday. After lunch the women went to Logan to view the quilts on display there. They have moved the quilts on but they were well worth the time to go see them.

Monday morning was coffee hour at the Manor. Ed Keith joined his mother Mary Keith for coffee. Doris Mizell went with the Ray Mizell family to Salina Friday. Aaron Mizell was performing in the play "The Lion In Winter".

Doris picked up Patty Foster Sunday afternoon and they attended the concert in Jennings. She enjoyed getting acquainted again with Jerry Poage who she hadn't seen for many years. Their families used to be neighbors northeast of Clayton.

Mrs. Mizell is going home with her daughter from Beatrice, Neb., on Easter Sunday for a couple of weeks. She will write Norton Manor news when she gets back.

For the March meeting, the Tuesday Study Club met at the home of Vendla Tacha. Ronnie Kauk of Hoxie gave a talk on Japanese glassware. She named differences between Chinese and Japanese glassware, the Korean influence in the glassware and gave general background information in the making of glassware. Roll Call was answered by Naomi Carter, Ruth Chance, Joan McKenna, Rachel Carter, Wilma Mader, Kathy Nauer, Helen Rhodes, Lynn Tacha, Helen Muirhead, Neoma Tacha and Vendla Tacha.

Stan and Ramona Shaw visited last week in Carlsbad, N. M., with Danny and Cindy Black, Logan and Bowen. On Wednesday Cindy received her certificate of completion from DTS America Medical Transcription School. She began work for DTS on Monday. Friday they all enjoyed the day in Juarez, Mexico. Enroute home Stan and Ramona visited Chris Gillespie, Tom Neff and Elliott Gillespie, Marion.

It was wonderful to see the United Methodist Church at Jennings full of people Palm Sunday. A potluck dinner was followed by a Musical Heritage Concert. The Jennings Church choir sang; Kay Brown and Amanda Wahlmeier played piano solos; Jane Wahlmeier and Amanda, Phillipsburg, played a piano duet; Dan Carter, Scott City sang a solo; Vicki Bailey sang a solo; Kay Brown and Julie Carter played an organ and piano duet. The congregation also sang several songs. A reception followed. Creta (Carter)Nichols, St. Simons Island, Ga., and Keith Carter, Colorado Springs, Colo., attended the celebration.

Harry Unrein recently had open heart surgery at Hays Medical Center. The community wishes him a speedy recovery.

Jennings City Council met April 6 at the Sunflower Senior Center. Councilmen present were: Stann Hartzog, Rick Foster, Don Bolt and Louise Cressler. Citizens attending were Dean Gawith, Dresden, Bob and Neoma Tacha, Glenda Johnson and Leroy Brown. Dean explained the plans for a handicap accessible ramp to the museum. Glenda presented names of new board members of the City Library for approval by city council. They were Ramona Shaw and Kathy Nauer. Glenda and Alice Wagoner are going off the board. The council approved the nominations. Leroy was concerned about his water meter being read late. A discussion followed and the council thanked everyone for coming. A work day is planned to clean out the city shop and other city buildings. A new chlorine pump was installed at well No. 3 Wednesday.

Fred Washburn, Hoxie, is the certified Water Operator for Jennings. Water is being hauled from well No. 1 by Murfin Drilling to an oil well north of Jennings. No word has been received from Norton Correctional Facility on whether a work crew might be available to help with maintenance work. An update was given by Mayor Bob Jones on the sale of the schoolhouse.

The council discussed the auction of contents of the school. It was reported that the roof on the Community Hall has again been repaired. It leaked when ice and snow came.

The topics of moving the bulletin board from the park to the community hall and placing a propane tank for the generator use at the hall were discussed.

April 2, The District Superintendent for the United Methodist Church, Pat Ault-Duall, from Hays came for Services at Lyle and Almena.

Monday, Kathy Van Meter and Toots Magers played cards with the residents of the Good Samaritan in Oberlin.

Wednesday, the Lyle ladies sewed with help from Jackie Porter and Eleanor Jensen from Norton. June Jolly framed the quilt she pieced together for the bazaar. That evening June and Kathy attended the weather spotters meeting in Norton.

Thursday evening Toots and Kathy attended the Decatur County Museum's members board meeting in Oberlin.

Friday, Kathy and Joyce Sumner went on a mystery trip with the First Bank Gold Club. They went to the Capital building in Des Moines, Iowa, and the Opera House in Pella, Iowa. While there they were entertained by the "Three Men and a Tenor", barber-shop quartet from Michigan. They visited Madison County, the birthplace of John Wayne. Did you know he weighed 20 pounds at birth? They viewed a few covered bridges; which there are six left out of 34. They attended a class in a one-room stone schoolhouse.

Sunday, Kathy attended the funeral of longtime friend, Roy Cobalt in Morland.

A few nieces and nephews of Toots Magers gathered in Lebanon, Neb., for a birthday potluck lunch in her honor. Later they all worked in the Lebanon cemetery. Charlie and Judy Easton accompanied Toots.
