

The Norton American Legion provided the color guard and firing squad for the Lenora Memorial Day service.

Hands were held over hearts as patriotic songs were sung.

Men from the Danbury, Neb., American Legion conducted Memorial Day Services at Lyle Cemetery. Members of the firing squad fired a salute to their fallen comrades before children placed flowers on veterans' graves.

During Memorial Day services at Norcatour, a tribute was fired over the graves of veterans who have died since last year's services. The firing squad (left to right) are Troy Marshall, Frank Brooks, Rodney O'Hare and Monty Hunt. They were commanded by David Johnson, partially hidden.

The American and Kansas flags blew in the wind after being raised at the Lenora service.

Wreaths decorated the white cross markers of fallen veterans buried in Mt. Hope Cemetery, Almena.

Members of the Norton American Legion honor guard led the way out of the Norton Cemetery after the services were finished.
