Softball under way for Division II girls

The Division II girls softball teams opened their season on May 31.

First State Bank 12 Credit Union 9

First State Bank came out slamming the ball on May 31. Darcy Bainter, Abby Bainter, Kami Jones, Tiffany Eagleburger, Kylie Nuzum and Katie Koch all rounded the bases to score in the first.

Sierra Black added one more in the second and Jones crossed home plate in the third. The team added another four scoring run in the fifth as A. Bainter, Eagleburger, Nuzum and Koch each made it home.

For the Credit Union, Sady Keilig and Alexis Henson scored in the first and then again in the second. Stephanie Hager rounded in the bases in the second and third innings, giving the Credit Union two more. The fourth saw Keilig and Henson scoring again, while Chrissy Matheson crossed home base in the fifth.

Logan 12 Credit Union 11

On June 2, the Credit Union scored one in the first when Stephanie Hager crossed home base. The team didn't score again until the third inning when Sady Keilig, Alexis Henson and Caren Thomson each rounded the bases. The fourth brought another scoring run from McKayla Cadwalader, while in the fifth, Keilig, Henson, Hager, Thomson, Chrissy Matheson and Rickete Green rounded the bases to give the Credit Union six more.

Samantha Tien put Logan in the board in the first inning, followed by a second from Marcy Gaines in the second inning. The third was a big inning for Logan with Brooke Hammond, Caley Greving, Michaela Girard, Marci Glennemeier, Hannah Pinkerton and Gaines each scoring. The fourth inning added four more from Hammond, Greving, Girard and Pinkerton, giving Logan the win.

Almena 11 End Zone 6

End Zone was up to bat first on June 2, but didn't score until the third inning when Tess Nickell and Johnnye Ruder rounded the bases. Sam Keenen and Alexis Lively both scored in the fourth and Nickell and Skylar Davis crossed home base in the fifth.

Kynzie Stevens, Erika Chandler, Cassie Field and Melissa Hawks scored for Almena in the first. Stevens, Chandler and Field rounded the bases again in the second, while Dakota Hilburn scored in the third. Stevens scored again in the fourth and in the fifth, Melissa Hawks and Olivia Lowry crossed home base for Almena's final two runs.

Credit Union 18 New Age 7

On June 5, New Age scored five from Brooklyn Winkel, Mariah Farber, Shylo Paxton and Alec Melvin in the top of the first. Cristine Nelson rounded the bases in the second and Farber scored again in the third. Nelson scored in New Age's last scoring run in the fourth.

The Credit Union scored six right off the bat in the first when Sady Keilig, Alexis Henson, Stephanie Hager, Caren Thomson, Chrissy Matheson and Rickete Green crossed home base. Alyssa Boser led the second followed by Keilig, Henson, Hager and Thomson. The third brought Kayleigh Norwood, Keilig, Henson, Hager, Thomson and Green home for six more. LaNae Dial topped it off with a final scoring run in the fourth.

Almena 13 Logan 3

Almena didn't score until the second inning on June 5, but when they did, they scored big with Cassie Field, Olivia Lowry, Sady Keilig, Melissa Hawks, Erika Chandler and Sarah Whitney rounding the bases. Keilig, who was a substitute, and Hawks brought in another two in the third. In the fourth, Kynzie Stevens, Dakota Hilburn, Keilig, Hawks and Chandler crossed home plate to score.

Logan had the lead for an inning as Sam Tien scored once in the first. She scored again in the third, followed by Marcy Gaines rounding the bases in the fourth.

New Age 13 End Zone 10

On June 5, New Age got off to a good start, scoring six from Brooklyn Winkel, Mariah Farber, Alec Melvin, Shylo Paxton, Jade Cressler and Shelbi McKenna in the bottom of the first. Farber and Melvin scored again in the second and one more time in the third. Joining Farber and Melvin in crossing home base in the third were Winkel and Paxton. Winkel scored a final time in the fourth.

End Zone made it on the board in the second inning with runs from Ruth Kendall and Sam Keenan. Johnnye Ruder scored in the third. End Zone picked it up a bit in the fourth with six from Keenan, Katie Clark, Skylar Davis, Tess Nickell, Ruder and Maggie Henry. Fayth Temmel made the team's last scoring run in the fifth.

Almena 14 First State Bank 8

On June 7, Almena opened the first with three runs from Ashley Constable, Melissa Hawks and Erika Chandler. The second brought Constable, Hawks, Sarah Whitney and Chandler across home base, while only Constable scored in the third. Kynzie Stevens and Olivia Lowry rounded the bases in the fourth and then joined Cassie Field and Dakota Hilburn in doing so in the fifth.

Tiffany Eagleburger put First State Bank on the board in the second inning. Sierra Black, Abby Bainter, Kami Jones, Kylie Nuzum and Katelyn Engelbert rounded the bases in the third to score for First State Bank. Emily Schulze and Black made a final two scoring runs for the team in the fourth.

Logan 11 End Zone 10
