

NORCATUR NEWS

Sympathy is extended to Richard Wicker on the death of his mother, Bethel C. (Ritter) Wicker, who died Tuesday, Oct. 17, at Norton. The funeral was at Enfield Funeral Home in Norton on Friday, Oct. 20. Burial was in Norton Cemetery. Memorials may be made to Andbe Home Activity Fund or First United Methodist Church Youth Program.

Sympathy is extended to the relatives of Merle Applegate, 89, who died Oct. 22, at the Norton County Hospital. Funeral services were held Oct. 26 at Enfield Funeral Home in Norton with burial at the Norton Cemetery.

Wava Reames returned on Oct. 24 from Kingfisher, Okla., where she visited her daughter, Shawna and Johnny Crum, Shawnda and James. James had his tonsils out on Oct. 18. Wava attended a farewell steak dinner at Kingfisher Plant for a co-worker she had worked with for 23 years.

Lee and Lora Arnold and Mary Arnold of Clayton attended the soup supper for Tony LaRue in Jennings, which was to help Tony with his medical expenses.

Dee Magers had a great birthday weekend. On Saturday night, Oct. 28, Rea and Dee attended the Methodist Bazaar in Norcatgur and Rea bought Dee a birthday cake. They attended Mass at New Almelo on Sunday, then later Jeff Magers joined them at their home for a birthday breakfast. Several telephone calls and birthday cards were also received from friends and family.

Birthdays: John Arnold - Nov. 3; Scott Harman - Nov. 4.

Guests for lunch on Oct. 21 of Marian Thornton in Oberlin were Patty and Sam Stapp, Norcatgur; Dave and Linda Schliep and Spencer, McCook; Greg Dempewolf and Darcie Zuck and Jade, Culbertson, Neb.; Bob Dempewolf; Andrew Dempewolf; and Dan Dempewolf and fiancée, Jolene and friends, and Amber Dempewolf, Topeka.

Bee Nelson took Bob Sawdon to the doctor in Norton on Tuesday, Oct. 23.

BLOCK PARTY

The Oct. 7 block party at Norcatgur was deemed a big success. Nearly 60 people turned out. Half of the new Norcatgurites were there and got acquainted with the longtime Norcatgurites.

Rodney and Janice O'Hare, Virgil and Joyce Price, and John and Carol New brought grills. Sherrie Willis and Randy Allen, Dorothy Ward, Dan Streveys, and the city provided picnic tables. Long tables were provided by Bob Sawden. Party preparation was handled by Wava Reames, Bee Nelson, Marguerite Clark, Dorothy Ward, Cathy Anthod. Cooking duties were provided by Randy Allen, Virgil Price, Rodney O'Hare, Dick Beachel, John New, and several others conscripted as needed. The Cardinal Bar and Grill also helped.

Some Norcatgurites came back quite a distance. Barbara McCool's sons came from Denver, Linda Roe Henry from Atwood, and the winner for distance traveled went to Loyal "Fox" Temple from Disney, Okla. Next year's block party will be in early September, so put it on your calendar.

MUSEUM TIDBITS

Al and Mary Sedlmayer brought to the museum a sewing kit given out by Citizens State Bank.

Check out the new Norcatgur website at www.norcatgur-ks.com. We will be adding some pictures soon. The pictures on the website presently have been donated to the museum. Phil Werking has put in a lot of hard work on this.

The museum closed Oct. 31. A.W. and Evie Lyon have given a mirror to the museum that was given out by Betts Super Service. It has a Sinclair Gasoline emblem on it, and we believe it was to put on your car visor.

Did you know the Norcatgur Rural High School Class of 1905 had their commencement in the Opera House?

The Norcatgur Museum has had another successful year. More than 100 items were added. Remember to continue donating Norcatgur memorabilia, and stop by to see the museum next year.

Have a story idea? Call 877-3361 and let us know ... we'd love to hear about it!
