

WILSONVILLE

By JOY STALDER

Wendee Masters of Omaha spent the weekend with her family, Tim and Barb Baca.

Saturday, Jan. 6 the Wilson family held their Christmas get-together at the Baptist-Christian Church. Those present were Deb and David Cobb, Cambridge; Travis, Bridget, and Ashlyn Cobb of Kearney; Wally Wilson, Blair, Brett, Lindsay and Karinne Jurey, Grand Island; Amy, Nick, Jake, Kylie Hanna, Hastings; Toby, Janelle, Trace, Zack, and Emily Jurey, Kearney; Kim, Josh and Evan Townsend, Kearney; Ella and Sonny Wilson, Bert and Laurie Jurey, Allen and Connie Wilson, all of Wilsonville. The day was spent eating, opening gifts, eating, visiting, eating and sledding down the hill in Wilsonville.

Allen Wilson was an outpatient at Good Samaritan in Kearney Friday.

Connie Wilson spent Thursday in Kearney babysitting with her grandson, Evan Townsend. Brooke Ballou, daughter of Brent Ballou, spent Monday night with her grandmother, Adeline Ballou.

The Wilsonville Women's Club met Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Baptist/Christian Church. Beverly Smith of Cambridge had the program. Beverly designs and makes costumes for others. Mary Wilson was the hostess for the evening.

Bill and Kathy Lewis went to Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 30 to spend the New Year's holiday with their daughter and husband, Cassie and Steve Hultgren. They returned home Jan. 4.

Tim Palmer is recuperating at the home of his parents, Darrel and June Palmer, following his surgery. He is doing very well.

Peyton Lang spent this weekend with her grandparents, Mike and Roxy Lang. Roxy brought Peyton to town to visit her great-grandmother, Lelia Lang, during the weekend.

Mike and Roxy Lang went to Kearney for a belated anniversary dinner on Sunday.

Carl and Ella Rae ten Benschel, Jan and Jodi ten Benschel attended the Inaugural Ball in Lincoln Friday at the Devaney Center as Ginger ten Benschel had been invited to sing her song, "I Love Nebraska" at the Ball.

The words to Ginger's song were on the back of the programs.

Ella Rae remarked that the Inaugural Ball was very, very nice and included dinner, the program and the grand march. The Holtze Family Christmas was held on Saturday, Jan. 6, at the Senior Center in Cambridge. The Kenneth Holtze families hosted the event using a star theme. In the afternoon, members had cake and ice cream for Carla and Baylee Miller's birthdays and Ken and Carla's anniversary.

Those in attendance were Kenneth and Carla Holtze and their families Rhonda and LaVern Banzhaf, Kayla and Krayton; Brad and Renee Holtze and Josh and Drew; and Russ and Kendra Hoagland and Jake, Trenton, and Travis of Hastings; Jim and Becky Holtze and their families Brian and Lyndzie Holtze, Justin and Jolene Miller and Braxton, Baylee, and Breelle, and Janene Holtze, Ivalene Simmons of Holdrege and her families Russ and Michelle Simmons and Elissa and Rachel of Hays; Chris and Caroline Erickson and Caden of Holdrege; and Rich and Heather Simmons and Christian and Lyndi of North Platte; and Margene Holtze.

On Saturday evening, Kenneth and Carla Holtze hosted a belated Christmas exchange at their home for their children: the Brad Holtze family, LaVern Banzhaf family, and Russ Hoagland family.

On Saturday evening, the rest of those at the dinner were at the Margene Holtze home in Cambridge. The Russ Simmons family spent Friday and Saturday with Margene.

Ivalene Simmons spent Tuesday through Sunday with Margene as she was without electricity in Holdrege due to the storm.

The Rich Simmons family and Braxton Miller were Saturday overnight guests of Brian and Lyndzie Holtze.

Kendall Rice had the misfortune to fall on the ice last week resulting in a two-day stay in the hospital.

Marvin and Marlene Witte went to the youth basketball tourney on Saturday in Cambridge to watch their grandson, Jake Witte, play.

Monday evening Marvin and Marlene Witte went to the Freshman-Sophomore tournament in Cambridge to watch some of the area kids play.

Marvin and Marlene Witte visited Jean Witte at the Cambridge Hospital Sunday afternoon. She had fallen on the ice.

Due to another snowstorm that moved in over the weekend dropping 6-7" of new snow, which now makes it a foot of snow on the ground with the previous snows, Wilsonville news will be rather scarce this week. Very few residents wanted to get out on the icy, snow-packed roads unless absolutely necessary. A number of area events were canceled and most schools had a late start. Thankfully there was no wind to blow the snow around or there would have been further electrical outages in the immediate area.

Ella Rae ten Benschel remarked that Senator Burling has introduced a bill that Ginger ten Benschel's song, "I Love Nebraska" be considered as Nebraska's state song rather than "Beautiful Nebraska".

Ginger plans to go to Lincoln this Wednesday to attend the hearing.

The Care Group held an organizational meeting at the Baptist/Christian Church last Wednesday and plans are for their Bible Study to begin Jan. 24.

Rilee Park had ACL reconstructive surgery in Kearney last Wednesday.

Dennis Palmer, Lake Elsinore, Calif., spent several weeks with his parents, Darrel and June Palmer, before returning to his home.

Ginger Rice and Sue Bethel called on Avis Wolfe Friday morning.

Allen and Connie Wilson went to McPherson, Kans., Friday to the home of Connie's stepmother, Doris Morse. They were joined there by Kim and Josh Townsend and Evan of Kearney and Ken and Marla Morse and family of Topeka. Allen and Connie's son, Kirk Wilson of McCook, was unable to join them. This was the Morse family's post-Christmas get-together. They all returned to their homes Monday.

I Help Others

I.H.O. Club met Jan. 10 at the Cambridge Senior Center at noon. Seven members enjoyed the delicious chicken dinner.

The business meeting was called to order by President Carla Holtze. Minutes were read and treasurer's report was given and approved. Those present paid their dues for the year. A monetary donation was given to the Senior Center. A new birthday song was sung to Carla, whose birthday was Jan. 6.

Devotions were given by Carla. The program followed with each member answering roll call telling about a book or article that was new or something they had recently read.

At the close, a picture was taken of the club members.

Next meeting will be Feb. 14 at the Wilsonville Library with Nadeane Haag as hostess.

Baptist-Christian Women Meet

The Baptist-Christian Women met on Thursday, January 4 in the church basement for their regular meeting. Becky Holtze had the lesson using thoughts on resolutions and goals for the New Year. She encouraged members to sow seeds of kindness and encouragement along with other positive traits in the coming year. Members received a small packet of seeds to help them in remembering to sow positive seeds in 2007. Virginia Rice served a tasty lunch to those in attendance.
