Norton group learns about skin care

The meeting of the Beta Alpha Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma International was held Feb. 5 at E11even Skin Essentials. Co-hostesses were Julie Schrum, Jennie Patterson, Joyce Morel and Wendy Haresnape. President Nan Smith conducted the meeting with 17 members present. Joyce Morel reported that The Young Americans from California would be hosting a three-day workshop in the Norton schools. She explained the purpose of the tour is to "build character and promote music in our schools". Members voted to make a club donation toward student scholarships for the workshop. Donations were also made to the Norton and Northern Valley Post

Prom committees. Joslyn Henson of E11even Skin Essentials presented a program about skin care. She emphasized how important it is to prevent sun damage to the skin. She said that most of the skin's aging is from sun damage. It is ideal if the skin can be protected from an early age. However, she said it is never too late to start taking good care of the skin. She explained her training and the variety of services available at her salon. Members also enjoyed seeing the watches, purses and other gift items for sale at E11even. The next meeting will be at 4:30 p.m., March 5 with hostess Jean Skrdlant.
