

Oberlin driver gets first win of season at Norton

By MIKE HUGHES

Racing action resumed at Elmwood Park Speedway in Norton Saturday evening, April 28.

Casey Werkmeister of North Platte, Neb., took the lead on the opening lap of the 20-lap IMCA Stock Car feature with Lenora's Jay Hachmeister close behind. But Hachmeister's motor let go on the second lap, bringing out the lone caution flag of the race and sidelining Hachmeister for the remainder of the night. After the restart, Werkmeister and Oberlin's Caleb Peters swapped the lead several times the first half of the race with Josh Hudson, Cory Struckhoff, John Huffman and Jared Remus close behind. Peters was able to slowly pull away from the field the last half of the race to score his first win at the half-mile oval this season. Heat one winner Struckhoff finished second, followed by Werkmeister, heat two victor Hudson, and Huffman.

Selden's Nate Schaben led all 20 laps of the IMCA Modified feature. Three caution flags kept the field close, but Schaben was up to the task to win his first race at Norton this year. Matt Fabrizius made a late charge to finish second, followed by Marty Clark, heat one winner Brian Calhoon, and Mitch Kline. Brandon Blochlinger won the other heat race.

Athol's Jerry Hudson won his second IMCA Hobby Stock feature of the season at Elmwood Park. Plainville's Laura Hinger led the first 2 laps before Hudson, who started 8th in the nine car field, took command. By the half-way mark, Hudson had checked out enroute to the checkers. Heat race winners Kelly Karnopp and Dustin McClurg finished second and third, followed by Gene Sneath and Phil Hinger.

The 4-cylinder Young Gun feature got off to a wild start as Levi Kiser rolled his car on the opening lap in turn 4. Kiser was not injured but finished for the night. Tyrel Smith of Goodland took the lead from Lenora's Loyd Schoen on lap 3 and drove on for the victory. Schoen was second, trailed by Royal Fisher. Kiser won the heat race.

After winning the heat race earlier in the evening, the team of Joe Carter and Driscoll of Russell won the Cruiser main event. Last week's feature winners Jim Carter and Ron Watson finished second.

Racing was scheduled for the half-mile oval on Saturday, May 5, but was canceled due to a severe weather threat.

"We made some steps back in the right direction today.

"Individually, J.D. Gall earned his first career individual medalist honors.

"Hopefully, the momentum earned from today's performance will carry us into a big week upcoming at the Phillipsburg Invitational on Monday (yesterday) and the Mid-Continent League Tournament at Trego on Thursday.

The league tournament will begin at 3 p.m.

"All three of our golfers were able to shoot season best scores today. They have shown a great amount of improvement throughout the season and I look for it to continue into the future."

"The bright spots of the day are our performance by our Norton B group and the individual performance of Kyle Edgett, who earned an individual medalist honor.

"Hopefully, we can make some corrections and finish the junior varsity portion of our schedule on a high note at Trego on Thursday."

Northern Valley, 52.

"We did not play very well today," said Norton head coach David Stover.

"We did not take advantage of good scoring conditions and shot scores well above what was anticipated coming into the home tournament.
