

The Prairie Duster Drill Team treated the crowd at the Logan Labor Day Celebration to a precision performance on horseback that was enjoyed by people of all ages. Organized in 1985, the women's drill team has performed in other states in addition to many locations in Kansas.

Jennifer Ortiz, Logan, (right) was one of hundreds of children who got a thrill out of going down the "Moonwalks 4 Fun" 22 foot slide at the Logan Labor Day Celebration on Sunday. The celebration at Logan concluded (left) with another fantastic, multi-colored fireworks display which was accompanied by patriotic music.

Another large crowd attended the 31st annual Labor Day Celebration on the golf course in Logan on Sunday. Many people brought lawn chairs and others sat in their vehicles as two outstanding musical groups performed, followed by a fantastic fireworks display.
