

The American Legion color guard stood at attention as the firing squad took their place for a salute to the memory of their fallen comrades.

Members of the Busy Jayhawkers 4-H Club had an entry in the parade. Riding in the back of the truck are from left to right, Anthony Wentz, Abbie Smith, Jarrett Wentz and Marisa Maddy.

Corrine Cox, Long Island, and her baby girl, Austin, rode with the Norton County Saddle Club.

Officers from Norton Correctional Facility formed an honor guard and marched in the parade.

For a bird's eye view of the Veterans Day Parade, Sara Porter hitched a ride on the shoulders of Travis Redeker. Tyson Callaway walked with the two. All three are students at Northern Valley High School.

Proud of their undefeated season, the Norton third and fourth grade football team marched in the parade.
