THANK YOU

A big thank you to family, friends, Dr. Maurer, hospital staff, and ambulance crew for their excellent care and support at the ER and while I was in Kearney Hospital. Thank you is not enough to express my gratitude for the support since returning home.
 Gilbert Courtain

In the last four months I think I've got to second base. I need to make a great big thank you to many people. To Stan and Carol Miller and your harvest crew. Thank you. For the prayers, cards, the prayer circles — you gave me strength to face this ordeal. Fit to Go, Norton Genealogy and Faith Hope and Charity, your concern humbled me. For all the great cards, letters and phone calls that kept me from drowning in pity. To Bee Nelson for keeping track of me, daughter Marcy for steering me to the right doctors, Jerry and Lisa for keeping the farm running, Bud Rhodes, we couldn't have done it without his help, Joey Anderson, a former student's son, came for a month from New York, Suzanne and Lisa for waiting 10 hours in the McCook train station, just to get to Lincoln, Scott and Tracey for their support, John New for cleaning my driveway and the other people I don't even know. Lastly to my wife Jerry for her patience in trying to repair a 320 lb. gorilla. Again I say thank you.
