

ALMENA NEWS

By FLETA HANLON

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wasinger, Phillipsburg, were Feb. 16 guests of Eldo and LaVerne Graham. They were welcome extra helpers for the Almena Community PRIDE and Jr. PRIDE Pancake and Sausage Supper. Linda Wasinger is the sister of Mrs. Graham.

Other helpers, besides regular members, were: Amanda Hopkins, Jessica Largent, Kyler Harris and Hutch and Jessica Gehrke.

Alice Kuiper spent the weekend of Feb. 9 and 10 visiting Stuart and Angie Porter in their new home near Beloit. Stuart's job with Swab-Eaten Co., made it necessary for them to live in Beloit. Janet and Dick Porter came to Almena and took Alice along for the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Porter helped with work on the house while Mrs. Kuiper spent her time enjoying her great-grandchildren, Jacob and Abby. They all returned to their homes on Sunday.

Eileen Cramer returned to her home Feb. 15 from Windom, Minn., accompanied by her daughters, Bonnie Fox and Judy

Whitney. Bonnie and her husband, Jim, live in Windom; while Judy and her husband, Ed, live in Maple Grove, Minn., a suburb of Minneapolis. We are glad to have her home since she has been gone since September.

Mrs. Cramer also visited her son, Ron, and his wife, Ellen, in Fallbrook, Calif., plus visiting all her grandchildren. She was very happy to get to see her brand new great-granddaughter in California and also a new great-great-grandson in St. Cloud, Minn. Another stop was in Tuscon, Ariz., to visit her daughter, Patty Engelhardt.

Mrs. Cramer left Almena in September with her son and daughter-in-law, Ron and Ellen, to attend the funeral of her brother, Donald Dixon, in Ridgecrest, Calif. Donald grew up in Almena and attended grade school and high school. After graduation from high school, he attended Ft. Hays State University on an athletic scholarship.

Ralph Dixon, Eileen and Donald's father, was the Almena town marshal for a number of years.

LYLE NEWS

By VEDA WOOD

When the weather is fit, several women meet at the Community Building in Lyle to sew. They mostly make baby quilts. When one of the group has a birthday, the rest "gang up" and buy her lunch. Tuesday, Feb. 12, was June Jolly's turn, so the group ate at the Cardinal Bar and Grill in Norcat. Those dining were: the guest of honor, Kathy Van Meter, Toots

Magers, Joyce Sumner, Eleanor Jensen and Veda Wood. Veda's daughter, Tracey Pershing and granddaughter, Brooke Glosser, are visiting, so Tracey's sister, Tielia High and Tielia's daughter, Aubrey, along with their mother, Carol Moye, and Kylie Gruwell also joined the Lyle Ladies for lunch. Mrs. Wood passed up the sewing in order to spend time with her family.
