Wayne Edward Bernard Sept. 26, 1915-March 19, 2008

Wayne Edward Bernard, 92, died March 19 at the Logan Manor. He was born Sept. 26, 1915 near Alma to Edward and Elizabeth (Rafferty) Bernard. When he was about four years of age, the family moved to Densmore and farmed the Sauerwein place. There, he attended grade school and graduated from Densmore Rural High School in 1933, playing all four years on the football team.

He enlisted in the U.S. Navy on Oct. 23, 1942 in Kansas City, and served most of his time at an aircraft salvage facility in Hawaii. He was discharged on Jan. 2, 1946 at Camp Shoemaker, Calif.

He enjoyed watching sports and keeping up on the statistics, reading Westerns, especially Zane Gray and Louis L'Armour, and doing crossword puzzles.

A longtime resident of Denver, he worked for many years at Swift & Co. packing house, and as a custodian at Jefferson County Schools. On Feb. 12, 1999, he moved into Logan Manor where he remained until his death.

He was predeceased by his parents; his sister Alice Riemann, brothers Ray and Homer, and a brother-in-law Alf Riemann.

Survivors include a sister-in-law Dorothy Bernard, Norton, and nieces and nephews, including Rita Riemann Hockman, Densmore; Duane Riemann, Phillipsburg; Bernard Riemann, Mesquite, Nev.; Ruth Riemann Roe, Osage City; Karen Riemann Walters, Albion, Neb.; Mary Ellen Riemann Posson, Norton; Ardie Bernard Grimes, Baldwin City; Beth Bernard Metcalf, Liberal; and Ed Bernard, Wellington.

There will be no services at his request. Private family burial of remains will take place at a later date in the Bernard family plot in Calvary Cemetery, Densmore. Memorials are suggested to the donor's choice.

Olliff-Boeve Memorial Chapel, P.O. Box 563, Phillipsburg, is in charge of arrangements.

Fine Arts Tea another success

Members of GFWC Mid Century Club, and guests, attended the annual Fine Arts Tea on March 13.

The evening included a visit to the Norton Community High School art department for mini art sessions, conducted by students of Vicki Robinson.

Ashley Martinez helped participants learn about the left brain, right brain concept and to draw a vase/face and ribbon.

Ashley Maybon shared ideas for scrapbooking and offered members materials for designing note cards.

Nolan Evans challenged members to develop a value scale as well as displaying several mediums he used for art projects.

The next portion of the program featured music presentations. Rosetta McFarland introduced presenters and teachers. Vocal solos were presented by Tabitha Vincent and Stephanie Hager, students of Valerie Leising. Accompanists were Sonya Montgomery and Priscilla Kendall.

Piano solos were presented by Kelsie Mordecai, student of Sue Ann Stutheit; Alec Melvin, Rhees Carlson and Alexis Henson, students of Jennifer Ruder.

Blossum Jacobus, AFS student from Belgium, did a power point presentation on her home country. She shared information about government, schools, foods, cities and tourist attractions.

Hannah Pollock, a student at Eisenhower Elementary School, entered the GFWC of Kansas

Creative Writing Contest. She presented her poetry, "Summer."

Members of Mid Century had asked Rosetta McFarland to play a piano solo, as this would be the last Fine Arts Tea she would attend here. She played "Impromptu #142," by Franz Schubert.

Refreshments of tea breads, coffee and tea, were served from a table decorated with shamrocks and candles.

The committee in charge was Virginia Will, KayLene Hahn, Donna Hale and Carolyn Applegate.

Rosetta McFarland played a selection by Schubert at the recent Fine Arts Tea. Mrs. McFarland, a longtime member of the Mid-Century Club, will soon be making her home in Indiana.
