Spring Sports 2008

Northern Valley freshman Kayla Field began her high school track career by winning the 3200 meter run in the Norton Invitational Track Meet. She was also a state medalist last fall in the state cross country meet.

Norton sophomore Connor Pfannenstiel, a member of the Norton Community High School varsity golf team, sinks a putt on the Prairie Dog Recreation Association golf course south of Norton.

Logan senior Zach Long got the season off to a great start with a third place in the pole vault and both hurdles races and championship in the triple jump at the Norton Invitational Track Meet.

Norton junior Hayli Bozarth had another great day in the Plainville Invitational Track Meet. She won the discus and shot put and placed second in the javelin throw. Since then, she has broken the school record in both the discus and shot.
