† Cross Roads † "National Prayer Warrior"

1 Timothy 2:1-4, "I urge, then, first of all, that requests, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for everyone - for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. This is good, and pleases God our Savior, who wants all men to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth."

The first step in becoming a pleasing prayer warrior is to grasp the truths of four keys words regarding prayer in today's key text.

The first word is "request" (deesis) giving us the application of presenting a special need or the intense needs of others by making the supplications with a sense of urgency. In keeping with our theme, it was the intense prayers offered up to the Lord for protection of our president when he was being flown around the USA in Air Force One, while our nation was being attacked on 9/11/2001.

The second word is "prayers" (proseuche) meaning to become a house of prayer. This is literally a house of prayer with set times to pray and involved in seasons of prayer. Compare this to a house that has everything set in place, everything being done in proper dependable order.

The third word is "intercessions" (enteuxis) and as it is used in 1 Timothy 2:1 it means praying according to God's will (Zodhiates) and standing in the gap before God on behalf of others seeking His mercy and grace for them. In keeping with our theme today, it's praying that God would bring America to repentance, God would put His protective hand around our president as He did King David, and that the Lord would give him wisdom.

The fourth word is "thanksgiving" (eucharista) meaning prayers that express thankfulness to God for hearing our prayers of faith in anticipation that He is going to work out all things for His glory and purposes.

Christianity Today had a quote from Karl Barth that should cause all Christians to grasp the power that is possible in offering prayers girded in these truths, "To clasp hands in prayer is the beginning of an uprising against the disorder of the world."

With These Truths in Your Heart
You Can Offer National Prayers
