

OBITUARIES

Bradley Morrison Scott

March 17, 1965 - Nov. 11, 2008

Bradley Morrison Scott, son of Robert and Mertha Maurine (Morrison) Scott, was born March 17, 1965, in Ft. Walton Beach, Fla., and passed away at his home in Norton, on Nov. 11, 2008, at the age of 43.

Brad graduated from the Coleman High School in Coleman, Texas with the class of 1983. He lived in Sweetwater, Texas, until March 2002, when he married Kelli Young and moved to Norton where he was a custodian and bus driver for the Northern Valley School District #212.

He was a member of the Norton Christian Church and had a great love for God, his family, and his work. He loved life and found happiness in the simple things. He was honest, faithful, genuine, loving, and happy. He will be fondly remembered with a smile on his face.

Survivors include his wife, Kelli Scott, of Norton; four daughters, Sara and husband, Adam Parker, Abilene, Texas; Emily, Katie, and Molly Scott, Norton; his parents, Robert and Maurine Scott, Sweetwater, Texas; one sister, Samantha and husband, Steve Dillaha, Snyder, Texas; other relatives and many friends.

Funeral services will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Norton Christian Church.

Burial will be in the Norton Cemetery.

Funds can be made to the Brad Scott Memorial Fun.

Friends may call at Enfield Funeral Home in Norton on Friday from 3-8:30 p.m.

Arrangements are by Enfield Funeral Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Brett Folks

Couple married in Norton church

Angela Marie Henderson and Brett Ray Folks were united in marriage on Saturday, October 18, 2008, at 3:00 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church in Norton. Officiating the wedding ceremony was the Rev. Herman Lambrecht.

Parents of the bride are Larry and Vicki Henderson, Norton. Parents of the groom are Dennis and Cindy Folks, Lawrence. Grandmother of the bride is Julia Roeder, Norton and grandmother of the groom is Velta Sitler, Lawrence.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father and given away by her parents.

The bride was dressed in a strapless A-line gown with cuff neckline and a sweeping train. The dress was highlighted with a wine pleated sash. She wore a finger-tipped veil with a narrow wine colored edging. A small tiara with wine and crystal beads adorned her hair. She carried a bouquet featuring wine and white roses, lilies and calla lilies.

The groom, and groomsmen were dressed in black tuxedos with white shirts, vests and ties.

Maid of honor was Lisa Marie Henderson, sister of the bride, of Norton. Bridesmaids were Emily Folks, sister of the groom, of Lawrence and Jenny Hildebrand, cousin of the bride, of Manhattan. They all wore long, wine colored dresses.

Best Man was Nathan Burman, Manhattan, friend of the groom. Groomsmen were Michael Sitler, Garnett, cousin of the groom and Jordan Mizell, Manhattan, friend of the couple.

Presiding at the guest book was Tiffany Dunyon, Ottawa, cousin of the groom.

Larry Henderson, father of the bride, was the vocalist. Organist was Karen Francka of Norton.

Ushers were Chance Marble, Almena, cousin of the bride and Bryce Marble, Colby, cousin of the bride.

Handing out programs were Ryan, Robert and Rhett Blecha. They also assisted with the gift table.

All the flowers for the wedding party and church were made by Charlotte Stephenson, Norton.

Photographers for the wedding and reception were Carolyn Plotts, Norcatour and Charlotte Stephenson.

A reception and dinner was held immediately following the wedding in the church fellowship hall. Helping in the kitchen and at the reception table were Christie Anderson, Beaver City, NE; Anita and John Hildebrand, aunt and uncle of the bride, Lenora; Susie Marble, aunt of the bride, Almena; and Charlotte Stephenson and Carolyn Plotts. The wedding cake was made by Jan Volgamore, Norton.

The rehearsal supper was hosted by Dennis and Cindy Folks on Friday evening at Attitudes in Norton.

Following a honeymoon to Port Aransas, Texas, the couple are living in Lawrence where they both are employed.

It's a boy!
