The Norton Community High School wrestling team hosted Mill Valley in a dual on Friday, Jan. 9 in Stull Gymnasium and won by a score of 47-18.

Norton won eight matches wrestled and Mill Valley won four matches wrestled and each won one by forfeit.

"This is the first year we have had a dual the night before the J.R. Durham Invitational Tournament and I think it was good for us," said Norton head coach Bill Johnson.

"It was a way for us to get out some sluggishness before the tournament. We competed well technique-wise but many of our

By DICK BOYD nortontelegram@nwkansas.com

The Norton Community High School C-team girls basketball team placed third in the C-team Tournament on Saturday in Phillipsburg.

The young Lady Jays lost 55-42 to Smith Center then defeated Plainville 38-22 in the consolation championship game.

"It was a good first experience for our C-team," said Norton girls assistant coach Joan Bolt.

"They continued to improve as the day went on and I was pleased with their effort. They know what they need to work on and will continue to improve."

Smith Center Against Smith Center, the Lady

Jays trailed by quarters 19-8, 28-19 and 45-28.

Leading scorer for Norton was Dustyna Sprigg with 10 points, followed by Meaghan Peterson, 8; Kaylen Rossi, 7; Erin Terrell, 5; Sady Keilig, Alexis Henson, 4 each; Caren Thomson, Kylie Nuzum, 2 each. Hileman led Smith Center with 26 points and Fuller scored 15.

"We started out very flat defensively and offensively against Smith Center," said coach Bolt.

"We settled down in the second half and played more controlled and aggressively. In the fourth quarter, we did a lot of good things and pulled within striking range a couple of times. I was pleased with ladies kept control of the game and our effort in the last quarter. It was finished with a strong victory."

a great confidence builder for the next game."

Plainville

The young Lady Jays held quarter leads of 19-4, 25-11 and 33-17 in the 38-22 win over Plainville.

Terrell led Norton in scoring with 9 points, followed by Sprigg, Tiffany Eagleburger, 8 each; Rossi, 7; Keilig, Thomson, Peterson, 2. A. Reif led Plainville with 7 points. "Our girls kept the momentum
