✠ Cross Roads ✠
"Connecting Requires Believing"
 We must believe that God will answer prayer and we must never take our authority in Christ for granted. James 1:5-7 says, "If any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him. But when he asks, he must believe and not doubt, because he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. That man should not think he will receive anything from the Lord..."
 James is writing in the context of trial and temptation here. The idea is when trial and temptation have run their course, the child of God will not lack the virtue and strength that must be found in the man who wants to connect with God in prayer. It is assumed that while a child of God is going through trials and temptations, he lacks wisdom that God would freely give upon the asking. God is not going to reject His needy children because of any faults. It is during these trials and temptations the child of God will get all the wisdom he needs.
 Although there is nothing more God wants than to give wisdom to His children and meet their needs, there is a barrier that could arise within them. When Christians ask, they "must believe" and not have any doubt. Their faith must be more than mere acceptance or a creed. To believe here means to be confident that God will give what is requested and it is to be expected that He will do so.
 It is to believe when He says, "Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you." (Hebrew 13:5b) God's people are secure no matter what comes their way, so there is no need to use the world's way of doing things. It is to believe when he said "...and surely I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matthew 28:20) Christians are to go forth in the Great Commission in confidence that Jesus is in sovereign control of everything in heaven and on earth.
Matthew's Gospel does not end with a command, but a promise and there is a truth that must be grasped in the Greek word for "always" (pasa tes hemeras), strictly meaning "the whole of every day." This suggests that Christ's continued presence is with us "day in and day out" no matter what troubles or difficulties may come our way in everything God calls us to do.
