Hansen Museum schedules oil painting workshop

The Dane G. Hansen Memorial Museum takes great pride in hosting a four day painting workshop with David Vollbracht, who will be instructing the class at the Dane G. Hansen Museum, 110 W. Main, Logan.

These classes will be held on July 14, 15, 16 and 17 and will run from 9 a.m. till 4 p.m. with a one hour break for lunch. This learning opportunity is brought to you through the Hansen Museum

Continued Education Program and offered at reduced rates to the public.

The cost of the workshop is $150.00 with discounts available for Hansen Museum members.

This class will be on the use of photography as a reference material. Special emphasis will be placed on the limitations of photography and how to use it as a point of reference instead of Design, color, values and composition will be explored as well as the more illusive but just as important elements of mood, passion and attitude that can make a good painting better and a better painting great.

Intermediate and advanced artists may call 785-689-4846 for more information or to register by phone.

David Vollbracht is a representational landscape painter of the west. His work reflects the quality of light, nature and spirit drawn from the land. For many years he has made trips to various parts of the west to gather reference material for realistic impressions created primarily in oil.

David emphasizes the beauty and importance of the natural landscape in his compositions.

He is intrigued by the patterns and shapes in nature and concentrates on the effects of light on these elements.

Mr. Vollbracht resides in Medicine Lodge and has earned a degree in art from Fort Hays State University.

His knowledge has been nurtured by attending the art workshops of Clyde Aspevig and Wayne Wolfe. David has recently received Signature Membership to Oil Painters of America.He has shown his work at numerous shows including: Mountain Oyster Club Show, Tucson, Ariz., One Man Show Wichita Center for the Arts, Wichita, National Miniature Show, La Luz, N.M. National Oil Painters of America Exhibitions and Rocky Mountain Plein Air Show, Winter Park, Colo. David has art work currently in the following galleries: Elkhorn Art Gallery, Winter Park, Colo. and Paint Horse Gallery, Breckenridge, Colo.

County

The commission asked what the situation with the Cat that caught on fire Friday was.

Brannan said Friday evening a grader caught on fire while it was sitting off the highway near He said it had been parked for over an hour. An insurance adjuster will evaluate the damage. A county resident was in to voice a complaint about drainage.

She said she has been on the list for several years and work has Brannan said the Kansas Department of Transportation is responsible for some of the drainage issues she is having. He said he would contact them to see when they can begin work.

The commission called a 10 minute executive session to include Brannan. They returned to an open meeting with no action taken.

Curt Archibald, Norton County Solid Waste supervisor, gave his weekly report. He said the landfill is now charging for e-

• Norton County Sheriff Troy Thomson visited with the commission about the 911 console. He said they had over 1,500 911 calls last year.

The commission discusses a letter they received from a disgruntled inmate in the county jail. They said he complained about the food, deodorant and other issues. County Attorney Doug Sebelius said he would respond to the letter.

Thomson said they are advertising for a deputy since Scott Bohl left the sheriff's department.

• A KCAMP representative visited with the commission regarding the county's loss ratio for 2009. He said it was 24 percent, a good average for the year.

The next Norton County Commission meeting will be held June 14 at 9 a.m. on the second floor of the Norton County Courthouse.

Budget

Aaron Herman made a motion to approve the budget. Vote taken, motion passed.

In other commission business:

• The board voted on new officers. A motion was made to approve Aaron Herman as president, Curtis Eveleigh as vice president, Barb Brooks as treasurer and Gail James as secretary. Vote taken, motion passed.

• Stiles reported on the progress of the Young Professionals group. She said the first event will be held on June 26 on the lot next to the Security Abstract building on E. Washington. She said a laptop computer will be given away during the event.

to attend the next race at Elmwood Park Speedway

• The board discussed the high demand for housing in Norton. Stiles said that the re-opening of the Stockton Correctional Facility will mean an extra 17 jobs in Norton. So far the office is working with people on an individual basis to find housing.

Stiles said it isn't feasible to build new housing. The board discussed having a seminar on housing rehabilitation.

• The board discussed the Ultimate Guide magazine advertisement. Last year a full page ad was purchased with economic development paying $1,000 and Travel and Tourism paying $600. Stiles said it is the main publication for Northwest Kansas but wasn't sure economic development should cover the expense of an ad.

"I think it's a waste of money," Herman said.

The board did not take action on the issue.

• Stiles said three county businesses received merit awards from the Kansas Department of Commerce for their Business Appreciation month. Garrett's Plumbing, Downtown Carwash and Groomingdale's in Almena received the award. The board discussed having a ceremony to recognize the winners. • Stiles told the board the community owned clothing store meeting went well. A follow up meeting has been scheduled for June 15 at 5 p.m. in the economic development office. Stiles thanked the Edmond residents in attendance. The board had previously planned to hold the June meeting in Edmond.

The next Norton City/County Economic Development meeting will be held July 13 at 5:30 p.m. at 113 N. Norton.
