The Norton Junior High girls basketball teams wrapped up their season on Dec. 11 at the Smith Center Tournament. The seventh grade team, made up of 12 players, beat Smith Center 28-17 and also beat Republic County 39-10.

In the first quarter against Smith Center the Junior Lady Jays were only able to put two points on the board, scored by Hanna Brooks. Smith Center tallied six ending the quarter leading 6-2.

During the second quarter, the Junior Jays did a bit better with Molly Maddy making a two pointer and her one free throw. Lexi Voss was also able to put points up with a two pointer. It was as if tides had turned as Smith Center only put two points on the board this quarter. This ended the first half with Smith Center leading 8-7.

The second half of the game was much better for the Norton team. Voss was high scorer for the quarter with four followed by Lauren Mordecai with one free throw and a two point basket, Peyton Renner, Nickala O'Hare, Casey Ambrosier and Maddy each scoring two. Smith Center was unable to keep up and scored four. This finally put the Jr. Jays in the lead 22-12.

During the final quarter of play the steam seemed to run out for Norton. Maddy scored a free throw and a two point shot followed by Kirstin Georgeson's two pointer and Renner's free throw. Smith Center managed a two point basket and three of four free throws but yet, too much ground was lost in the third quarter and Norton took the win 28-17.

Head Coach Cheri Brooks said, "Playing two basketball games in one day is tough. We had an advantage with our deep bench and I really think that helped us with Smith Center. We had lost to them in overtime earlier in the year, but that didn't stop these girls from coming out in the third quarter and making a huge run. They were so patient on offense, moved the ball well, and took what the defense gave them. They really did a great job of using all five players and executing the offense. Defensively, they were aggressive as usual, but the girls made better decisions, contained the ball, and rebounded well. Overall, I couldn't be happier for them to end the season playing as well as they did."

The next game played was Norton against Republic County. Norton walked away with their second win of the day 39-10.

In the first quarter, Norton out scored their opponent two to one. Hanna Brooks, Kirsten Georgeson and Lauren Mordecai each had two point baskets followed by Casey Ambrosier sinking two of her four free throws. Republic County was able to put four points one the board ending the quarter at 8-4.

During the second quarter, Brooks and Molly Maddy of Norton each scored four followed by Mordecai with two. Republic County kept the same pace scoring three points, two on a basket and one by free throw. This ended the first half of the game, 18-7 for Norton.

In the second half of play Norton continued working well together. Brooks was the high scorer with six followed by Maddy with a two point shot and one of two free throws and lastly Mordecai with two more. The Jr. Lady Jays put a total of 11 points on the board and Republic County was unable to add any points to their tally ending the third quarter with Norton still leading 29-7.

Alexis Hartwell of Norton led the scoring with two, 2 pointers followed by Nickala O'Hare, Peyton Renner and Kirstin Georgeson with two each. Republic County came back in this quarter but the three points they scored, all by free throws weren't enough to win the game so Norton won 39-10.

Head coach Cheri Brooks said, "The girls played great. I've been waiting all season for them to put it all together and they did. They have worked really hard on defense all year and I'm really proud of them. Offensively they executed well and go the shots we were looking for."

Eighth grade girls have two hard losses

On December 11, the Norton eighth grade girl's basketball team played at the Smith Center Tournament and brought home two hard losses.

When Norton took on Republic County they had a big loss of 25-8.

In the first quarter, the Junior Lady Jays out scored Republic County by two. Morgan Farber was the leading scorer for Norton with a two pointer and two good free throws followed by Erin Archer with a two point basket. Republic County had two baskets which ended the quarter with Norton leading 6-4.

During the second quarter, Republic County gained momentum scoring eight points to Norton's two made by Arienne Hager. The first half ended at 12-8 and Norton lost their lead.

The first part of the second half was the beginning of the end for Norton. No Blue Jays points were put on the board yet, Republic County was able to hit one basket and one free throw bringing the score to 15-8.

The fourth quarter was a repeat on the third for Norton with no points tallied. Republic County improved with three, 2 pointers and four free throws ending the game at 25-8.

The second played at the Smith Center Tournament was against Smith Center and Norton lost 35-10

The first quarter was a sign of things to come when the Junior Lady Jays were only able to put two points on the board by Erin Archer. Smith Center was playing well and scored eight points ending the quarter at 8-2.

In the second quarter, Morgan Farber was the only Norton player to score with a two point basket. Smith Center found their groove and wrung up 13 more points leaving Norton trailing 21-4.

There was no point improvement in the third quarter. Once again Farber was the only one to score for Norton with two. Smith Center slowed down a bit by adding eight points to their score. The third quarter ended 29-6.

Smith Center put the final touches on during the fourth quarter by scoring six more points. Norton battled back but was only able to put four more points on the board. Farber and Kaitlyn Bohl each scored two which left the Junior Lady Jays defeated 35-10.

No coaches comments were turned in.

Youth Hunt will be this weekend

Prairie Dog State Park is accepting applications for the Annual Youth Pheasant Hunt which will be held on Saturday, Jan. 22 at 8 a.m. The hunt is limited to twelve youth hunters ages 10 to 15. All participants must wear blaze orange during the special hunt and each youth must be accompanied by an adult. If more than 12 youth apply for the hunt, local staff will conduct a drawing to determine who will be eligible to hunt in this year's event.

In cooperation with the Norton Longspur Pheasants Forever, the annual youth hunt is held as part of the Kansas Hunter Recruitment and Retention Program called "Pass It On." This program addresses the need to recruit new hunters and retain existing hunters in order to ensure future hunting in Kansas. The Prairie Dog State Park Youth Hunt is designed to encourage young hunters and should offer a quality experience with a better than average chance of success.

To apply, contact the Prairie Dog State Park Office at (785) 877-2953 no later than Jan. 20 with your name, birth date and phone number. Park staff will notify the participants by phone on Jan. 21 with the results of the drawing.
