Phyllis was thrilled to see and hold Jake's new daughter, Abby Ruth when she was 10 days old about two weeks ago. Their fifteenth great-grandchild is due in June.

"Necessity of Expectancy"

Message Available on

"The Need of Seeing Vision Through"

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Then you will call upon Me and come and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. You will seek Me and find Me when you seek Me with all your heart." (Jeremiah 29:11-13)

Let me give you some Biblical history. The prophet Jeremiah's message was rejected at home and because of his faithfulness to deliver such an unpopular message, the Lord gave him another message for those whom God had carried off into captivity in Babylon. In Old Testament times, God allowed His disobedient children to be carried off into captivity as well as having them put into slavery for willful sin. The Book of Romans tells us, today, God allows willful sinners' minds to become depraved. (Romans 1:28) The willful sinners' thinking becomes futile, their hearts darken and they become filled with every kind of wickedness. (Romans 1:21) Jesus said, "...I say unto you, everyone who sins is a slave to sin." (John 8:34)

Just as the Prophet Jeremiah was called to proclaim a Word to a people bound by the results of sin, Christians are called to proclaim a message to a people who can be antagonistic to the things of God. Just as God gave a message of hope for the people of Jeremiah's time, the Lord has a message to give through His faithful servants today.

To help you pray your Biblical call through to completion, Pastor Laughlin has spent nearly 100 hours preparing this message:
