From the time of Adam and Eve until the return of Christ, the whole of Scripture teaches us that we are to walk the walk of obedience to show the Lord that He is the purpose for everything we think, say and do. The Lord has made and will make provision--it is our responsibility to respond to His mercy. 1 Corinthians 10:13 says, "No temptation has seized you except what

There is a blessed truth for the child of God: The right choice of obedience leads to the fruit of the Holy Spirit, “love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.” (Galatians 5:20)

Jesus, God's only son, the only one who walked this sin-trodden earth sin free was not exempt from having to walk in the humility of obedience. (Luke 22:42) Philippians 2:8 says, "And being found in appearance as a man, He [Jesus] humbled Himself and became obedient to death—even death on the cross!" The Bible says, "Although He was a son, He learned obedience from what He suffered and once made perfect, He became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey Him..." (Hebrews 5:8) Those who claim to be putting on Christ must walk in obedience.

Choose to die to self, walk in step with the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:25) in full obedience to God's decrees (Leviticus 20:8), for Jesus' sake (Romans 12:1),

If a new blossom is not protected from harm, the future of the flower is lost – but with the right tending and nourishment it blooms beautifully. Those of us who have children realize how difficult it is to protect a child from any harm. No matter how we try, at times we feel inadequate. We may become frustrated and sad as we see our perfect infant grow up and be influenced in ways we cannot control. God can help. This week, visit your chosen place of worship as a family and grow together in the garden of the Creator.
