

Timber!

Wind in excess of 70 miles per hour hit Norton Friday night, bringing damage to some trees and the Downtown Sander Furniture store awning. This tree in Elmwood Park looked as if someone had leaned up against it and pushed it over narrowly missing a shelter house.

HANSEN MUSEUM

What little town hosts a great big fair? Logan: a farming community of 600! Nestled in northwest Kansas, on Highway 9, The Dane G. Hansen Museum sponsors one of the best craft fairs around on Saturday, Sept. 17. Hosting crafters from Kansas and surrounding states, this is a shopper's paradise. Family and friends rally together for this annual event held on the Hansen Plaza Square, Main Street, Logan. There is no admission charge to attend this event.
Crafters check in at pre-dawn in preparation for the 10 a.m. opening. Food vendors line two sides of the Square. Food may include hamburgers, brats, turkey and noodles, sloppy joes, homemade pies, homemade ice cream, barbecue beef sandwiches, bierocks, snow cones, egg-rolls, crab ragoons and more. If you start the day hungry, you won't be for long.
Want to meet a local radio legend? Visit Tad Felts (Tadpole) at the announcement booth. This will be Tad's 36th year as our Master of Ceremonies.
A chainsaw artist, Gary Keenan, from Iowa, will be on the grounds to astound you with his chain saw artistry. He will be performing at 8 a.m., 10 a.m., noon and 2:30 p.m. and will complete several projects for your viewing pleasure. Drawings will be held at 11:45 a.m. and 2:15 p.m. for two of his carvings.
A fun center, extreme castle, bungee run and castle obstacle course will open at 11 a.m. and be available to entertain the children through 4 p.m. Games and races will be held at 10 a.m.. This will include turtle races, a sand pile treasure hunt and an egg toss. Bring your own turtle and kids.
Be sure to head to the Kid's Tent from 1-3 p.m. for face painting by the Logan KAYS and free helium balloons.
An antique tractor show is being planned by the Logan Historical Museum in conjunction with the Hansen Arts and Crafts Fair. This is your chance to stroll among the many tractors of the past. You will be amazed at the power and versatility of these machines.

Take a stroll through the Museum gallery and view "Going Places." This exhibit explores the culture, evolution, and eventual demise of horse-drawn transportation from the early nineteenth century, through the Industrial Revolution, and into the 1900s and the dawn of the automobile age. This exhibit holds 41 diverse artifacts - including a full-sized pony surrey, harness and tack, and assorted carriage accessories. This exhibition has been made possible through National Endowment for the Humanities on the Road. It is brought to you by Mid-America Arts Alliance. "Going Places" was organized by the Long Island Museum of American Art, History and Carriages in Stony Brook, N.Y.
Check out our honored "Artist of the Month" items for sale inside the museum or just sit a spell and enjoy the comfort of air-conditioning.
Live entertainment on two stages will be performing at various times during the day. "Intensity," a national champion, percussive power tap crew, made up of 15 members who have trained together for over ten years, will be performing on the south stage at 10 a.m., noon and 2:30 p.m. They combine clogging, hip hop, tap, Irish step and many other dance forms to create a sound and style that will blow you off your seats. "Uncalled 4," a local barbershop quartet, will be performing on the north stage at 11 a.m. and 1:15 p.m. Group members, Bruce Bandy from Colby, Al Finkbeiner from Russell, Gary Horchem from Ransom and Warren Stafford from Hill City, have been singing together for about three years. They are dual members with the Colby Tumbleweed Chorus and the High Plains Chorus. Both stages promise to entertain with performances to please each and everyone attending the Arts and Crafts Fair.

Bob Jones, antiques appraiser from Jennings, will be available in the Community Room of Hansen Plaza for a free verbal approximation of value for your antiques from 10 a.m. - noon and 1 - 4 p.m. Registration forms to schedule a time for the appraisal are available through Hansen Museum.
Don't forget to purchase or renew your Museum membership to automatically get your name in the pot for the $500 Purchase Prize drawings held at 11:45 a.m. and 2:15 p.m. You must be present to win.
The highlight of the day will be the selection of 12 new winners (and two alternates) of the coveted "Artist of the Month" award. This year's crafters will be judged by John Thorns, Hays, for their uniqueness, quality of craft, and display. Winners will be presented with ribbons and certificates prior to the public announcement and photos at 3:30 p.m.
Join us for our 38th Annual Hansen Arts and Crafts Fair, Saturday, Sept. 17, on Main Street, Logan. The Fair ends at 4 p.m. so come hungry, bring your wallet, and wear your walking shoes. You'll leave with a smile.
For more information, CRAFT-ER registration forms or ANTIQUE APPRAISAL forms, contact Shirley Henrickson at 785-689-4846 or go to www.hansenmuseum.org.
Museum hours are Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to noon and 1-4 p.m., Saturday 9 a.m. - noon and 1-5 p.m., Sundays and holidays 1-5 p.m. There is never an admission fee.

Student News

Kansas University offered scholarships and awards to students in specific courses of study. The award recipient, from Norton County, to be honored by the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, is Annette M. Becker, Lenora, a senior in English and history of art. She was awarded the Kate Stephens Fellowship scholarship. Her parents are John and Ann Becker. Annette attended Norton Community High School.
Kate Stephens Fellowship

Award is given to a graduating senior planning graduate studies in literature, history or ethics.
Funds for the award are managed by Kansas University Endowment, the independent non-profit foundation serving as the official fund raising and fund-management organization for Kansas University. Founded in 1891, Kansas University Endowment was the first foundation of its kind at a United States public university.

Hutchinson Community College has announced the honor rolls for the Spring 2011 semester, including grades through the end of the interterm session. Two students from Norton, Nichol Graham and Amber Sheley, achieved the Vice President's Honor Roll with at least a 3.5 grade point average for the semester.
