

LYLE NEWS

Carol Moye took Veda Wood and Aubrey High to Indianola, Neb. Saturday evening. Aubrey went to the home of Don and Caron High, her grandparents, in order to be there for swim lessons. Carol and Veda went to hear Dwight Wood and Andre Lefebre play a benefit at the Rocket Inn for abused women and orphans.

Teresa Wood spent the weekend in Flint, Mich. where she grew up. She is visiting with classmates, friends and family. Her class and family are both having reunions, and her family is having a memorial for her father and a nephew. She will be home Tuesday.

Keith Anthony returned home after an extended stay with his daughter, Sissy, in Texas.

June Jolly's daughter, Linda McFarland, had surgery on her right knee. She is at home and is doing fine. June took homemade ice cream to son, Dean and Rhonda's home. Their son, Darren, was visiting also.

Funeral services were held Monday for Jacob Gallentine, who died in an auto accident, on June 22. He is a great-great nephew of Margaret Magers, and grandson of Ruth Cozad Vise, formerly of the Lyle neighborhood. Our sympathies are extended to the family.

Bill Schwab, who died as the result of a tragic accident on his farm, was also buried on Monday. The families of these two men are receiving many heartfelt, sympathetic prayers.

The Norcatat community is sorry to hear that Jean Daniels, who has made Norcatat her home for several years, lost her fight for life and passed away on Saturday, June 25.

Mariah and Garrett Bader and Grant Slater visited with me on Monday. Garrett picked and stemmed gooseberries and Grant picked mulberries. The tornado warnings didn't seem to worry them.

NORCATUR NEWS

The Breiners enjoyed a family reunion in Norton at the Legion on Saturday evening. At least one branch, the offspring of Eldon and Loretta (Breiner) Carter, planned to be in Norcatat for lunch on Saturday.

Senior Citizens met on June 17 with 13 present. Winners were Eleanor Jensen, Arlene Hix and Veda Wood. The next will be Friday.

Ronald Temple received a kidney transplant on June 15 in Omaha and he and his wife, Gerry, have returned home.

The Norcatat Methodist Educational Building is newly painted on all sides, thanks to Mr. Smith and his crew from the Norton Corrections Facility. They did a good job. Thanks, too, to Bee Nelson for loaning all of her equipment for the painting project. Now it needs new windows. We can start this project from the Norcatat Methodist Church Memorial Fund, but there is not enough in the fund to complete this improvement project. If you would like to help, send a check and the name you would like remembered to Norcatat Methodist Church Memorial fund, c/o Dewaine V. Stapp, 201 E. Commercial, Oberlin, Kan., 67749.

Former Pastor Ray Gilstrap for Alma, Norcatat, Clayton, had brain surgery for removal of a tumor in Wichita last week and is in Mitchell County Hospital Health Systems in Beloit. His address is: Room 105, 400 W. 8th, Beloit, Kan., 67420; phone (785) 738-2266. He would be delighted to hear from friends., but no e-mails, please.

Dorothy Ward and Bee Nelson had Sunday dinner at the Hidden Dragon in Norton and were joined by Jerry Hill.

When making donations or memorials, continue to keep the Roof Fund, the Eldon Auker Park, the Museum and the Library in mind. All are for very worthy causes and none of them have an income. They are all based on donations. Also be sure to keep the Citizens Alliance in mind. All donations can be made through them and are then tax deductible. Just specify where you would like your money to go to.

JENNINGS NEWS

A rain storm with tornadic-like wind hit Jennings late Saturday evening causing a lot of tree damage. The strong wind was high and not on the ground or more damage would have been done. The streets and parks were littered with tree branches. A total of 1.30 inch of rain was received in town.

Wayne and Louise Cressler went to the home of their son, Russell Cressler, in Bison on Sunday. We enjoyed a barbecue and fireworks with grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Those attending were: Robert Cressler and Zach, Amber and Johnny Klassen, Keith, Landon, Issac and Aleah; Preston Cressler and friend, all from Salina, and Addie Schroter from Derby, and Wayne and Louise and Russell.

The Sunflower Senior potluck supper was held at 6 p.m. on Tuesday evening, July 12. We played bingo afterwards.

The Jennings City Council will meet at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday evening, July 14, at the Senior Center.

The Jennings Alumni papers may be purchased at "The Bank" or the Museum in Jennings.

PUBLIC NOTICE

If it's not in the newspaper, how will you know?

Zoning changes in your neighborhood. A proposal to increase your property taxes. Information on how public officials are spending your tax dollars. These are just a few of the topics — topics that affect your family and your community — local government officials are required to publish in the local newspaper.

Your local newspaper fulfills an essential role in serving your right to know. After all, it shouldn't be your responsibility to know how to look ... where to look ... when to look ... and even what to look for in order to be informed about public information. It is the government's responsibility to notify you of public information, and your local newspaper is the most accessible place to find it.
