

Norton gets new LDS church missionaries

As the newest Church of Latter Day Saints (Mormon) missionaries in Norton, Alexander Jackson and Michael Riha will be completing Christian missionary work in and around Norton for at least six weeks.

Both from Utah, Jackson and Riha will be in Norton for up to the next six months and while they are here, they will be sharing the gospel with people they meet. Their mission includes community service, volunteer work and local events to promote their message.
