

Make Church a Part of Your Life

WEEKLY SERMONETTE

“When The Storms Come”

By Rev. Ron Scheimo, Interim Pastor, Crossroads Church

We all have storms in our lives. They may be accidents, sicknesses, job losses, divorces, deaths or family crisis etc.

Just because we are Christians doesn't mean we are exempt from trouble in this life.

My wife and I went with Rev. and Mrs. Merlyn Watts to a Prayer Summit in Springfield, MO., in March of 2007. At a gas stop in Platte City, Mo., I caught my foot on the gas hose while refueling our van. I ended up breaking my left wrist and left hip and our Prayer Summit ended being four days in the North Kansas City Hospital. With everything changed and I in a lot of pain, Sylvia and I kept quoting Romans 8:28. It inspired Rev. Watts to write the following poem which is good for all of us.

Romans 8:28 says, “And we know that all things work together for good to those who are called according to His purpose.” Rev. Watts passed away a few months ago but his poem remains appropriate with all the storms of life.

Lord, don't let me ask "why?" when things go wrong

And if I don't feel like singing, Lord, send me a song

And if it seems your blessings come a little too late,

Then just let me whis-

per, "Romans 8:28"

Why is it Lord, when I try to do good

When I'm doing the things that I think that I should

Then things go wrong and life's not so great

Let me remember Your

Word, Lord, "Romans 8:28"

I don't really know why when I do what I do

When I've sought Your Will, and I try to please You

When I try to walk a path that is straight

It's then you remind me of "Romans 8:28"

I guess I'll continue to do what I can

To always listen and follow your plan

I'll set my eyes upon heaven's gate

And fix my attention on "Romans 8:28"

Cause if all things are working together for me

And if I love God, and I know He loves me

And if it's His purpose, then I will just wait

Contented to rest upon "Romans 8:28"

IT COULD BE YOU

Have you ever worried about losing your job, or facing a serious illness, or making a terrible mistake? If you have faced and survived any these fears then you are likely thankful for each and every day you have your job, your health, and your talents. Remember to thank God for these things as well. Also, remember to pray for those who are less fortunate. Praise God at His House this and every week for all your blessings.
