

JV golfers play well in Goodland, Hill City tournaments

By Dick Boyd

nortontelegram@nwkansas.com
The Norton Community High School junior varsity golfers played their best of the young season on Tuesday, April 17 in the Goodland JV Invitational as they earned five of the top six medalist scores.

No team scores were kept but Norton junior Cassius Dole was low medalist for the day with a 44. Blue Jay junior Javen Colip was runner-up medalist with a 45. Norton junior Ryan Bainter was third medalist, also with a 45.

Jonah McClung, Goodland, was fourth medalist with a 47. Fifth medalist was Norton senior Taylor Meder with a 47 and Norton freshman Chance Uehlin was sixth medalist with a 47.

Other medalists were Caleb Yauney, Dundy County, 47; Chris Rotherham, Dundy County, 47; Blake Bergling, Atwood, 47 and Michael Blodgett, Atwood, 49.

Also playing for Norton was junior Jordan Hartwell and he shot a 56.

“What an outstanding performance by our junior varsity golfers today!” said Norton head golf coach David Stover. “To earn five of the top six individual medalist honors is quite an accomplishment.”

“Cassius Dole won the top individual tournament honors for the first time in his Norton career today but I am very pleased with the performance of all our golfers. All of our players played well today and are making great strides in improvement.”

Hill City
The junior varsity team placed fourth in the JV Invitational Golf Tournament in Hill City on Friday, April 13.

Phillipsburg won the championship with a 176, followed by Hill City Black, 180; Ellis, 182; Norton, 190; Trego Community, 194; Ness City, 196; Plainville, 205; Hill City Red, 228; Brewster, 249; Stockton, 257; Hill City White, 322.

Junior Ryan Bainter was low scorer for Norton with a 44, followed by freshman Chance Uehlin, 46; junior Javen Colip, 48 and sophomore Garret Otter, 52.

Also playing for Norton and their scores were junior Dustan Daniels, 52 and junior Vaughn Newman, 59.

Bainter was sixth medalist and Uehlin was 14th medalist.

The top 11 medalists were Ben Weaver, Hill City B, 41; Hunter Scheib, Trego, 41; Keaton Orr, Phillipsburg, 42; Jaron Kellerman, Phillipsburg, 42; Tanner Keithley, Ellis, 42; Ryan Bainter, Norton, 44; Colton Bobek, Plainville, 44; Brandon Worcester, Hill City

B, 45; Felholter, Ness City, 45; Dakota Bryant, Hill City B, 45; Matt Stutsman, Northern Valley, 45.

“Today was a good start to our junior varsity portion of our schedule,” said Norton head golf coach David Stover. “We came out and competed well on a day where perfect scoring conditions led to good scoring overall for a junior varsity tournament.”

“Ryan Bainter played steady

golf all day and Chance Uehlin earned an individual medal in his first golf tournament for Norton. I was also pleased with the play of Javen Colip and Garret Otter.”

Next action
The Norton junior varsity's next golf tournament will be next Tuesday, April 24 in the Smith Center JV Invitational, beginning at 3 p.m.

Junior High Huskies host invitational meet

The Northern Valley Junior High School track team competed in the Husky Invitational Track Meet on April 13 in Logan. It was a very nice day and many Huskies had personal bests. There were seven schools at the meet.

The Husky boys finished in 5th place and the Husky girls finished in 6th place. The Northern Valley 6th grade boys and girls combined scores to place second. Ryan Thraikill had a big day, winning three gold medals in the 1600m, pole vault and anchoring the 800m relay. The girls were led by Brooke Baird and Shayna Vincent. Baird won a gold medal in the pole vault and two silver medals in the hurdles and the 400. Vincent got two second place medals in the shot and discus. In the 6th grade division Briely Yocum and Chaylee Lowry each won gold medals in the high jump.
