The Norton Community High School girls and boys track and field teams continued to show improvement in just their third meet of the season with runner-up and third place finishes, respectively, in the annual Plainville Invitational on Tuesday.

Oberlin won the girls championship with 128 points, followed by Norton, 119; Trego Community, 90; Russell, 46; Hill City, 44; La Crosse, 38; Plainville, 34; Ellis, 33; Victoria, 23.

The boys champion was La Crosse with 151 points, followed by Plainville, 97; Norton, 90; Ellis, 65; Hill City, 58; Oberlin, 40; Russell, 21; Victoria, 20; Trego Community, 10.

"In our third varsity meet of the season, we had a great day!" said Norton head track and field coach Jason Jones. "Our girls finished just nine points out of first place and our boys were a solid third!"

"We are getting closer to figuring out in which events to enter girls and boys to give us our best team shot down the road in the championship season and we saw some great performances from our people. Austin Hager highlighted the day when he tied the meet record in the pole vault with his winning personal best vault of 13'6".

"Again, we did post new personal records in a number of areas on both sides. That is what we want to see and we are very proud of the effort that our athletes are giving. We continue to be pleased with the results, as well.

"We plan to continue to work to improve and we are excited about this team's future."

GIRLS

The Norton girls scored 24 points in two different events, the pole vault and the 3200 meter run.

Sophomore Baily Ambrosier won the pole vault with a clearance of 8'6", edging sophomore Marisa Maddy who was runner-up with the same height but more misses. Third place went to the Lady Jays' junior Kamilla Jones with a vault of 8'.
