

Critters for a Cure

Team Jamboree held a "Crocheted Critters for a Cure" fund-raiser last week at Twice Sold Treasures in downtown Norton. The fund-raiser featured hand-made crochet animals, made by Sandi Hildebrand. The critters will be on display through the week and are available for purchase for a $10 suggested donation at Twice Sold Treasures. All proceeds from the sale benefit Norton County Relay For Life. JENNINGS NEWS

Stan and Ramona Shaw attended the first birthday party of their great-granddaughter, Lenzy Golemboski, Saturday at the home of her parents and sister, Zach and Katie Golemboski and Lexy of Colby. Great-grandparents Dennis and Marilyn Wahlmeier of Cambridge, Neb., were also in attendance.

Members of the Tuesday Study Club met at the United Methodist Church Tuesday, April 24 at 10:30 a.m., holding a short business meeting before traveling to Atwood. Those attending were: Ruth Chance, Patty Foster, Violet Foster, Pat Hall, Lila Jennings, Sue Long, Joan McKenna, Shelley McKenna, Helen Muirhead, Kathy Nauer, Helen Rhodes, Lynn Tacha, Roberta McAllister, Louise Cressler, Rachel Carter and Paula Krizek. In Atwood the group ate lunch at the Park Hill Restaurant. A wonderful program provided by Sonia Domsch on creating Czech Bobbin Lace was held at the Midwest Energy meeting room. Sonia demonstrated the art of making bobbin lace using a special pillow, an intricate pattern, thin thread and 28 Czech bobbins. The stitching process was fascinating and quite time consuming. She had many beautiful lace creations on display and shared her family history of passing the lace-making skill from one generation to the next. The resulting lace was delicate and beautiful. The program heightened club members' appreciation for handmade lacy things. Roll call was answered by members showing lacy things they had brought with them.

"Dancing at the Rascal Fair," a historical fiction by Ivan Doig, was reviewed by the Jennings Book Club on April 25 at the home of Lila Jennings. Strawberry cake, lemon bars, cheese and crackers, grapes and peanuts were served by the hostess, Lila. Book Club members enjoying the wonderful treats and discussion questions were: Kay Brown, Ruth Chance, Patty Foster, Violet Foster, Pat Hall, Terri Hanke, Carla Latimer, Sue Long, Joan McKenna, Kathy Nauer, Helen Rhodes, Lynn Tacha and Lila Jennings.

The Annual Lions' Mothers Day Dinner will be held Sunday, May 13 from 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. in the Sunflower Senior Center. A free will donation would be appreciated. More on this in next weeks news.

The Senior Citizens Potluck Supper will be held May 8, at 6 p.m. at the center. Everyone is welcome to come enjoy the meal and social hour.

Those playing cards Wednesday at the senior center were: Eleanor Morel, Alice Wagoner, Stan Shaw, Ramona Shaw, Carol Carter, Agnes Wahlmeier, Wayne Cressler and Louise Cressler.

LYLE NEWS

We had a good rain last week, over one half inch. All growing crops and flowers are ahead of schedule; so, barring late freeze and hail, the good Lord willing; the farmers should have an early harvest. We also had 90 degree weather a couple of days. Tracey, my granddaughter in Wyoming had 87 degrees one day, and a light snow the next.

June Jolly is swimming, and feels it is helping health wise, and I know it's fun besides. She said it rained some during the night, Sunday.

Kathy Van Meter and Lloyd Frandsen were at Lyle and visited Toots Magers. They are busy, as usual.

Charles and Inez Keller were at Lyle Sunday morning, he filling the pulpit and giving us an interesting history lesson on the community. He told us more about the Pistol Packin' Circuit Preacher, Jack Langly, who would lay his six guns on each side of his bible in case the remnants of a rustler gang, which he had helped capture and hang, should burst in on the service.

The Norcat Methodist Church had a wonderful potluck get-together for the area churches and friends on Sunday.

Judy and Charlie Easton came to the dinner (and brought their scrumptious okra dill pickles). After dinner, they went on to Toots Magers, mowed and weed-whipped and spruced things up.

Dixie Wood called me the other day. Her hands, especially, have been swelling and painful, but she says she can still do most of the things she needs to.
