

We're proud of you for continuing your longtime tradition of excellence in BB Gun marksmanship!

Norton head coach Cameron Archer uses his binoculars to check the progress of Blue Jay alternate Miles Harrington from the sitting position. Miles had his best score, a 91, from that position.

The Norton marksmen, coaches, parents and fans pose during the Daisy National BB Gun Championship Match in Rogers, Ark. Pictured are, from left, front row: Valerie Elliott, Cris Mulder, Christa Mulder, Joni Berry, Steve Berry, Joe Berry, Elsie Wolf, Shannon Goss, Rusty Goss, Cindy Wardyn, Mary Beth Boyd; second row: Morgan Goss, Kenya Goss, Ken Wardyn; third row: Stacie Elliott, Nick Davis, Miles Harrington, Dylan Goss, Shannon Deines, Greta Thiele, Loren Thiele; back row: Marty Harrington, Jeff Elliott, James Berry, Erin Archer, Colton Mulder, Cameron Archer, David Deines. When shooting was in progress on the range in the auditorium, the fans of the 53 competing teams filled most of the seats to witness their favorites doing their best on the firing line. Many of the fans had binoculars and used them to try to zero in on the target of their marksman.

As Norton head coach Cameron Archer looks on, Colton Mulder pulls the trigger from the prone position where he shot a 90.

Stacie Elliott takes aim and fires from the kneeling position. Norton head coach Cameron Archer likes what he sees as he checks her score with the binoculars. She recorded a 90.

The BB gun shooters had some fun during Opening Ceremonies when they had the chance to play "Minute to Win It". Stacie Elliott, left and Colton Mulder represented Norton's team.

Norton alternate Nick Davis fires off another round from the kneeling position as head coach Cameron Archer keeps track with his binoculars.
