Duplicate Bridge

There were three tables for Duplicate Bridge on Wednesday night played at Norton Manor. The results are as follows: First place went to Carla Latimer and Bob Jones, second place to Joyce Sumner and Jackie Porter and third place honors went to the pairing of Jerry Moritz and Doug Johnston.

A new beginning

Eisenhower Elementary School's Open House was held last Thursday night. Olivia Carter marks off her check list while her father Justin looks on. The night is full of excitement as the students find out who their teachers will be, find their room and parents have the opportunity to talk with their child's home room teacher. To finish the night the Eisenhower cook staff prepared their famous cinnamon rolls and peanut butter twists, something everyone really looks forward to.

CLUB NEWS

Bethlehem Chapter #89, Order of the Eastern Star, has had a busy first half of 2012. In March the following officers were elected, appointed and installed: Worthy Matron, Cecilia Hillebrand; Worthy Patron, Tony Van Patten; Associate Matron, Glenda Smith; Associate Patron, Kelvin Smith; Secretary, Shari Archer; Treasurer, Georgie Rorabaugh; Conductress, Clara Sebelius; Associate Conductress, Esther Ellis; Chaplain, Mary Lue Archibald; Martha, Darlene Day; and Electa, Dorothy Campbell.

On April 17, 18 and 19, Clara Sebelius, Shari Archer and Cecilia Hillebrand attended the "In His Amazing Grace" Grand Session in Wichita at the Drury Inn. During the last night of the session, Shari was introduced as a Special Page to the Worthy Grand Matron, Kimberly Dellinger; Cecilia was introduced as a Special Page to the Worthy Grand Patron, Robert Hess. Clara has been appointed Grand Representative to Illinois in Kansas; and Shari has been appointed Grand Representative to Nevada in Kansas.

On June 11, Bethlehem Chapter welcomed the newly appointed District Aide for District 11, Janice Stites of Hill City. Janice brought to the members the plans of the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron for their "JOY of Music" Grand Session. She said that the JOY is capitalizing to remind us to put Jesus first, Yourself last, and all Others in between. After the meeting, refreshments were served to honor Janice. Worthy Matron, Cecilia would like to thank all those who helped from Pleiades Chapter #168 of Phillipsburg and Milbrook Chapter #108 of Hill City to make the evening a success.

On June 25, the members again welcomed guests to Bethlehem Chapter to conduct their regular meeting. A memorial service entitled "The Lord is My Shepherd" was held to honor the following sisters who passed away in the past year: Florence Capstick, Alma Anderson, Aileen Terrell and Marie Delimont. Those attending and helping from out of town were Belva Leydig of Prairie View and Roy and Jeannie Searles of Atwood.

Bethlehem Chapter recessed for the months of July and August. The Annual Eastern Star-Masonic Family Picnic is planned for Aug. 27, at 6:30 p.m. at the Naphtali Lodge No. 310 AF&AM in Alma. This picnic was first started in August of 1953. All members and their families are welcome to come and enjoy a great potluck meal. Plans are being made to salute the Past Matrons and Past Patrons in attendance.

They will begin their regular stated meetings on Sept. 10, at 7:30 p.m. Bethlehem Chapter meets at the Naphtali Lodge No. 310 AF&AM lodge hall on the second and fourth Mondays at 7:30 p.m. of each month. On Sunday, Oct. 28 will be a special ceremony for the 50 year pin recipients and the 60 year certificate recipients with the Worthy Grand Patron presenting the pins and certificates to the special recipients.

HANSEN MUSEUM

The Dane G. Hansen Memorial Museum presents "Between Fear and Faith: John Steuart Curry." The Kiechel Fine Arts out of Lincoln, Neb., organized the exhibit. This exhibit opened July 6 and will run through Aug. 26. It consists of approximately 40 works with an emphasis on the forces of nature.

The 36th Annual Labor Day Celebration will be held Sunday, Sept. 2. The day starts with the Remote Control Fly-In at 8 a.m., volleyball at 9 a.m., and the Dane G. Bales Memorial Car Show at 10 a.m. The kid's pedal pull will start at 2 p.m., horse rides at 3 p.m., the Prairie Dusters will perform at 4:30 p.m., Dueling Pianos at 5:30 p.m. and Black Diamond at 7:30 p.m. The scouts will have activities throughout the day, the Ecumenical Church Service will start at 9:30 a.m., the RTS Train will be available for rides at 2 p.m. and the inflatable amusements will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Logan Manor will be running a shuttle to "Eat Well, Play Well" at the Labor Day Celebration.
