Shuttle Service

The Logan Manor operated a shuttle service from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. for anyone wanting to view the "Eat Well, Play Well" exhibit at the Hansen Museum.

Several groups took advantage of this opportunity to get out of the heat and enjoy the hands on, interactive exhibit.

RTS Express

Michelle Prewo and Korene Triplett of Rural Telephone gave children rides around the golf course from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. on the popular miniature train, the RTS Express.

Prairie Dusters

Prior to their impressive afternoon performance, the local Prairie Dusters Drill Team gave children rides on their beautiful, talented horses from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m. and then performed at 4:30 p.m.

A local women's drill team on horseback formed in 1985, the Prairie Dusters attracted a crowd of all ages who enjoyed their precision maneuvers and were allowed to pet the horses and talk to their riders following the performance.

In their sixth year at the Logan Labor Day Celebration, they proudly presented a military pass-through in honor of U.S. Veterans and the Star Spangled Banner.

"Their demonstration on horseback was outstanding, as usual," Henrickson commented.

The Prairie Dusters are the official color guard for Kansas' Biggest Rodeo in Phillipsburg but they have traveled many miles to do what they love to do, fly the American flag from the back of a horse.

When they are not performing somewhere, they are practicing. Many hours are spent in the practice pen perfecting the precision drill that they perform. Each rider is responsible for her own horse and the equipment they use. Throughout the year, they have fund-raisers to help defray some of their expenses.

Members of the team who performed Sunday in Logan were Holly Runnion, Bonnie Archer, Jessica Ashbaugh, Allyson Pakkebie, Samantha Pakkebie, Whitney Mulder, Doris Mulder, Chelsey Burton, Marianne Schremmer and Jenny Archer.

Live entertainment

At 5:30 p.m., "Dueling Pianos" from Denver performed on baby grand replicas. Many special requests were played and enjoyed by the crowd.

"Black Diamond," a country western band from Swisher, Iowa, took the stage at 7:30 p.m.

Both groups were enjoyed by the enthusiastic crowd.

Ready for emergencies

Local EMS personnel were on hand as were representatives from the Phillips County Sheriff's Department.

The local firemen got a well-deserved break this year as there was no fireworks display due to a county burn ban and fireworks ban because of the dry weather.

Essay contest now open for students

The Kansas Historical Foundation is accepting entries for the annual essay contest "Kansas! Say It Above a Whisper." Sponsored by the Native Sons and Daughters of Kansas, the contest focuses on pride in the state and is open to Kansas students in grades 8 through 12. Essays must be limited to 250 words (about one double-spaced typewritten page) and must be submitted electronically by e-mail no later than Nov. 1. The author's name, school, grade, mailing address, and phone number must be included on the essay. Send entries to Terry Marmet, Kansas Historical Foundation, membership@kshs.org. Include "Boyd Essay Contest" in the subject line of the email.

The contest title was coined by early-day Kansas newspaperwoman Mamie Boyd, whose family continues to provide the cash award for the winner. Past essays have described interesting and strong-hearted people of Kansas, the state's vast grain crops and grasslands, diversities in population and the emotions and pride called to mind by the state's unique beauty.

A panel from the Kansas Historical Society and the Foundation will judge entries. The judges look for originality, creativity and sincerity in expressing pride in the state of Kansas. Winners will be announced and recognized at the annual meeting of the Native Sons and Daughters of Kansas Friday, Jan. 25 in Topeka. For more information, contact Terry Marmet, Director of Operations for the Kansas Historical Foundation, at 785-272-8681, ext. 209 or membership@kshs.org.

calls the port where he receives his drugs his "bump."

"He's the best kid ever," she said. "He takes it all in stride."

His mother works for Joe Dawson at his hog farm near Norcat, while his dad works for Sumner Farms. His mom had nothing but praise for both their employers.

"The whole Sumner family and Joe have been terrific," she said. "They've been so kind to us, understanding when we needed to go to doctor's appointments and everything."

"We've sent thank-yous, but that doesn't come close to expressing how grateful we are."

The family has tried to have some fun during this ordeal, she added. They went to the Omaha Zoo, where Eric said, "I like to go to the zoo and I like the lions, too."

To help the family with medical and transportation costs, a benefit hog roast will be held at 7 p.m. Saturday night in the multi-purpose room at the former Norcat school building. Ed Braun, Lance Braun and Greg Vanover will cook a hog donated by Jesse and Megan Carter of Jennings. Mrs. Kuhlman's sisters, Kasey and Brianna Cook, are organizing the event. Other helpers will be Eric's grandparents, Tami and Brian Cook, Norcat, and Ron and Raye Kuhlman, Oakley. Also on the menu will be salads, desserts and a special cake with Eric's picture on it.

Everyone is invited and donations will be accepted.
