

OBITUARIES

Carol Rae McDonald Jan. 10, 1932 - Feb. 20, 2013

iel and infant daughter Sarah. Blessed with a sharp wit and dry humor, Carol would often test and challenge those she loved.

Carol Rae McDonald, 81, surrounded by family and friends, departed this life on Feb. 20, 2013 to begin a new life with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Born Carol Rae Lockard on Jan. 10, 1932 in Norton, to Loyal and Carmen Lockard, she was a loving mother, grandmother and wife. She was a member of the Sunset Church of Christ and eternally grateful for the spiritual companionship she found there. Following graduation from Norton Community High School, Carol worked as a bank teller in Denver, Colo., where she met the love of her life Rufus Daniel McDonald on a bus returning home.

Carol was preceded in death by her parents, husband Dan-

She is survived by daughter Kathryn D. Carroll (Randy) of Lubbock, Texas, son Todd (Vickie) of Dothan, Ala., and son Scott (Sarah) of Shallowater, Texas grand-daughters Madison and Taylor, grand-sons Connor and Daniel, step grand-daughter Allison, and step grand-son Andrew.

Graveside services were held on Saturday, Feb. 23 at the City of Lubbock Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to The Haven Animal Care Shelter, 4501 N. FM 1729, Lubbock, Texas 79403 or online at havenACS@gmail.com.

50th Anniversary

The children of Wayne E. and Sharon (McKown) Archer happily announce their parents' 50th wedding anniversary.

Wayne and Shari were married on March 17, 1963 at the United Methodist Church in Norton, by Reverend Sam Staley.

They have been blessed with three children, Shannon Deines (David) of Lee's Summit, Mo.; Stephanie Dickerson (Joe) of Littleton, Colo.; and Cameron Archer of Norton; and four grandchildren, Cole, Lane, and Erin Archer of Norton; and Sydney Gross of Littleton, Colo.

The couple made their home on a farm near Almena where they live today. They are retired and enjoy spending time with their children, grandchildren and friends.

Cards, letters and photos are welcomed to help the couple celebrate this joyous occasion.

Snow storm, the good and the bad earth.

We went down to breakfast with trepidation, wondering if any of our kitchen staff could make it in. Most of them arrived, one way or another, stomping their boots, unwrapping from woolly scarves, unzipping heavy parkas. Hot coffee, oatmeal and omelets cheered us considerably as we rejoiced in the best part of retirement -- not having to go out in bad weather. Double pane windows, good heaters and a generator to back up the power are such blessings.

Northwest Kansas is buried and all transportation is at an absolute standstill. Great for wheat farmers, not so great for cattle ranchers. Thursday, today, should have been sale day at the Trego County sale barn but I wouldn't count on it. TV just announced it is seventeen degrees, with severe drifting to the west. Interstate-70 has now been closed west of Salina, earlier it was west from Hays. College classes are cancelled throughout the eastern part of Missouri and most of Kansas.

Remember the spring of 1987 when western Kansas hosted two blizzards back to back near Easter? During that time we hit the national news when the Obendorfs from Nampa, Idaho survived 13 days in a car buried on a drifted road in Norton County. The local stores sold out on snow shovels, sidewalk salt and snow blowers. School kids were ecstatic with almost three weeks off from school. At our house Dan attributed his top rating at state music contest that year to being marooned with nothing to do but practice his tuba solo a dozen times a day. He even programmed the music into my Tandy computer. I hear that melody still!

Snow is what it is - a blessing in some ways, a trial in others. This is one way our loving Weatherman Above can convince us to slow the pace of our frantic antics and take it easy for a few hours. Warm kitchens smelling of bubbling soup and fresh baked cookies brighten many a heart, so do treat your family this snowy evening. Snuggle down and enjoy yourselves.

A 'Summit On Soul-Winning' to be held at Christian Church

A "Summit On Soul-Winning" is scheduled with Dr. Cecil Todd and Ben Merold at the Norton Christian Church on March 1, 2 and 3.

The purpose of the gathering is to inspire and instruct ministers, elders, deacons, Bible school teachers and all Christians on how they can get their friends and family to attend church and to lead them to Christ, stated Dr. Todd. He has been in the Christian ministry for over 63 years and has brought over three million souls to Christ.

Ben Merold, another successful soul-winner for 65 years, and a builder of two mega churches, whose attendance totaled over 3,000 each Sunday, will be featured throughout the weekend.

Ben will address such subjects as "Why we do not witness for Christ," "Some things that will keep your church from growing," and "Some things I will never do without."

The "Summit" will start on Friday, March 1 at 7 p.m. and will continue on Saturday at 9 a.m. This service will conclude with a free luncheon at noon.

On Sunday morning, "The Summit" will continue with Ben Merold preaching for the first service at 8 a.m., and Dr. Cecil Todd will speak at the second service at 10:30 a.m. Merold will also speak at a combined group of all adult Bible classes in the main auditorium at 9:30 a.m.

Churches throughout the area are being invited to attend and take advantage of this great opportunity to hear Merold and Todd, two of America's premiere soul-winners and church builders. They have a combined 128 years of Christian ministry experience.

Admission is free and there is no registration charge. A free soul-winning packet will be given to each attendee.

For more information, or to make advanced reservations, please contact the Norton Christian Church at 785-877-2871.
